PREFACE

The Hathaway Family Association (hereafter referred to as HFA) sponsored this volume as a supplement to the 1970 edition HATHAWAYS OF AMERICA. That 1426 page volume is on the shelves of most libraries with large genealogical collections and will be available from the HFA as long as the supply lasts, and thereafter on microfilm from the Genealogical Society of Salt Lake City and on loan to its branch libraries.

The left-hand column of each page is reserved for the page in the 1970 edition where the new data applies. The same abbreviations shown on page 1223 of that book are used, except the two letter state abbreviations (See Directory of Post Offices issued by U.S. Postal Service) are used.

The HFA voted at the 1978 annual meeting to identify members if the members submit their lineage prior to June 30, 1979. This data is not edited, in general but the name and address of the person submitting it is shown.

The HFA is a non-profit, tax-exempt association of approximately 500 families. It was organized in 1911 and has held annual meetings continuously since that date. At present reunions are held on the third Saturday in June: on even years in New England and on odd years in the mid-west.

The compiler wishes to thank the hundreds of Hathaway descendants, and their friends, for the data submitted. She will be glad to accept evidence of contradictory data as well as supplementary information during the foreseeable future.

by H. Clifton

History of the Hathaway Family, 1200-1600 by H. Clifton is reproduced with permission of Miss Dorothy McCulla, Librarian of the Local Studies Department, Reference Library, City of Birmingham, England in a letter dated 24 August 1978 to a HFA member, R. Hathaway Esq., 170 Lightwoods Hill, Smethwick, Warley, West Midlands. She stated it was compiled about 1925 and bought by the Library in 1940. As this volume will be sold on a non-profit making basis to HFA members, and the use of it will further the interest of the author, she is quite willing the Hathaway Family Association of America reproduce it.

The Forest of Dene.

It was in the ancient Forest of Dene that the Hathaways attained to their greatest power, several of them reaching high administrative offices. Their history runs through the two centuries 1200 to 1400, a period for which private records are scanty so that such information as is available has to be patiently put together from the State & Juridical documents of the time.

It has seemed to me that the best plan of attacking the subject and the one best adapted for reference purposes was to deal with each member of the Forest family in Dene placing under his name every available record, giving the authority for every statement. I begin with —

1) WILLIAM HATHWAY THE FIRST. In a mortgage deed dated 1200 he is called the father of the mortgagor NIGEL HATHEWI. This would bring his "floruit" to the reign of Henry the 2nd and is the earliest of the name in our records.[1]

2) WILLIAM HATHWAY the SECOND. He was the son of NIGEL and in 1248 was granted by the constable full seisin [seisin = possession; J.C.H.] of all the lands which his father held of fee in the Forest of Dene.[2] He married Isabel, one of the five daughters of Robert de Aubermarle.[3] He died in 1250, having a little son William as his heir. The inquisition runs as follows:—

24 June 1250. Writ to the Sheriff of HEREFORD ordering him to go to St. Briavel and enquire into the wardships sold there and into the goods of WILLIAM HATHEWY taken into the King's hands for debts due to the King.

Inquisition. Friday after the Octave of SS. Peter & Paul concerning the sale of wards in the King's hands and the goods of WILLIAM

HATHEWY by the view of persons named who have sold the wardship & marriage of the HEIR of William Hathewy to Philip Wyther who has married the Relict of the said William for 20 marks, on condition that the said Philip pay 5 marks at Michaelmas next, Easter, Michaelmas & Easter next following and that the King shall continue to Philip the agreement made with Nigel Hathewy: that is to pay him every year 5 marks until 100 marks have been paid; and no one but Philip could be found to purchase the wardship.

WILLIAM HATHEWY had no goods saving a little corn in a grange, which they sold for 100 shillings and 4 oxen already sold for his rent. He was not in any debt to the King save only for his father.[4]

3) WILLIAM HATHEWY the THIRD. The son & heir of William the 2nd. He was born in 1244.[5] After his father's death in 1250 he became the ward of Philip Wither[6] who seems to have married his [William's; J.C.H.] mother AGNES with all speed as soon as she became a widow. Within a few years (some time before 1256) Agnes was also dead.

In 1256 he became heir to further properties. His maternal uncle, William de Aubermarle had died without any child to inherit, so that his estates were shared by his five sisters (or their heirs) each taking a fifth. Their names were ANORA, ISABEL, KATHERINE, MAUD and AGNES. The lands consisted of the Manor of Stinchcombe, two virgates in the Manor of Ham, held of the Bishop of Hereford and a carucate in La Trop[7]

In the course of the years, William rose to the highest offices in his part of Glos. becoming Chief Forester of the Forest of Dene and Constable of St. Briavels.

Entrance to St. Briavels Castle

Hunting Horn on Chimney of St. Briavels Castle

A few words as to the status of the Forest officers seem called for here for the better understanding of the positions held at different times by members of the Hathaway family. The Chief Forester was also termed Steward or Warden. The appointment was direct from the crown, though in some Forests it was hereditary. The Warden presided over the Verderers' Courts.

The Verderers were the Judges of the lesser Forest Courts. They belonged to the Landowner class. Though elected by the freeholders of the Forest they were solely and directly responsible to the Crown. Usually four in number; their official symbol was an axe.

Foresters. In Dene there were hereditary Foresters of Fee. Their duties were the active guarding of the vert and venison in their particular walk. Their perquisites were varied—pasturage, pannage, trees for fuel and one or more deer annually. In some cases they received pay. In others not only did they receive none, but they paid the Warden or Verderers for their posts, recouping themselves by endless exactions. This last remark (of course) does not refer to the heritary Foresters.

At the time when this William was Warden, a Welsh bard let his imagination run riot in describing the costume of Madawc, the Forester in Dene of King Arthur: "He was a tall fair headed youth clad in a coat and surcoat of diapered Satin and a golden hilted sword about his neck and low shoes of leather upon his feet"[8] A costume better fitted for the land of Faëry than real life!

In 1287 whilst Constable of St. Briavels he was ordered to muster the foot soldiers fit for service in his Bailiwick[9]. He remained Constable till 1291. On the 4 Jan. in that year we have the record: "Appoint- ment of John Buteturte to the custody during pleasure of the Castle of St. Briavel and of the Forest of Dene at the same yearly rent as William Hathewy late Constable of the Castle and Keeper of the Forest and his predecessors used to pay. Mandate to the said William for livery thereof by chirograph"[10]

Amongst the privileges attached to the office of Constable were certain fishing rights in the River Wye. We accordingly find the Bishop of Llandaff demising to William Hathewy for a term of years "a moiety of the weir called BIKES WERE in the water of Weye near the Castle" at a rent of 25/= yearly and "the fishery of BIKESWERE" at a rental of 28/= The record adds that the successive constables "paid nothing to the King for the said moiety but occupied and detained the moiety by colour of their Office"[11]

In the year following the lon of his "Constable" office we find William engaged in important duties across the Border: 28 April 1292. "Appointment of William Hathewy to the custody until further orders of the Castle, town and honor of Munemuth and the Castles of Grosmont, Skenefrith and Whitecastle, the manors of Rideleye & Mensterwrth and the lands beyond the Severn, granted by charter to the King by Edmund his brother with the Knight's fees, advowsons, homages, services of freeman and villeins and other appurtenances. And mandate to him to go in person and take the same into the King's hands. Mandate to Ralph Hathewy to deliver the same by chirograph."[12]

Later in life, we find his services to the King during the Scotch Wars mentioned in the Exchequer A/cs for 1302/1303[13]

The records include a few incidental references to his duties as Warden of the Forest.

IN 1289 he took an inquisition as Steward of the Forest of Dene[14]. In 1290 as assign of Roger Strange, justice of the Forest on this side Trent & in the presence of the verderers he took an inquisition "at the 5th Oak"[15]. On the 22 May 1300 he took part in the historic Perambulation of the Forest of Dene. The King in return for the grant of a 15th by the Commons having directed that "a perambulation of his Forests should be made and and that the metes and bounds so found should be strictly observed".[16]

Like most of the Forest freeholders, William was interested in the financial possibilities of the mines in the District. A note of one of his ventures can be found in an Inquisition held in 1287. Grimbald Pauncefot, whilst Warden of the Forest, had worked a mine claimed by the Abbot of Flexley against the said Abbot's Will. He took therefrom £6 for his own use and made a present of 10/= to William Hathway. When Hathway succeeded to the office of Warden "continuing the working of the said Grimbald he took therefrom from the time of the death of the said Grimbald up to now 7 shillings and 7 pence and against the will of the said Abbot. As to the estimation of the value of the said mine by the year, they say that it cannot be estimated because the metal is found casually & more often fails".[17]

A few details on Estate matters. At the Inquisition p.m. of Thomas de Blakeneye, held a few years after his death, it was stated that William Hathewy had occupied the tenements of the deceased at Blakeneye and received the issues therefrom during the four years 1291-1294. These comprised "a messuage, 11 acres arable, a water mill, 20 shillings & 5 pence assised rent and ½ acre of meadow held of the King in chief rendering 12 shillings & 2 3/4 at his castle of St. Briavels.[18]

About 1298 he disposed of his land in "LA TROP" inherited from his mother to John Waupol. The transaction is obscure[19]

In 1305 one of his tenants (Hugh de Redemon) who held ½ an acre in Ruardin was hanged for felony. By feudal law the King would hold this land for a year and a day after which it would revert to Hathaway as an escheat.[20]

In 1311 William got into some legal troubles as on the 28 Sept. of that year "Philip Le Palmere came before the King on Tuesday after SS.Cosmos and Damian and sought to replevy to William Hathewy the said William's land in Ruardyn taken into the King's hands for his default before the justices of the Bench against Ralph Dyson.[21]

As regards Ruerdean the Feudal Aids show him to have been joint Lord in 1316 with Alexander de Bicknor, clerk[22].

William died at the age of 72 in 1316. On the 28 June, the escheator was ordered "to take into the King's hand the lands late of William Hathewy, deceased, tenant in chief[23]. The usual inquisition followed.

Text of the Inquisition. Inquisition taken at Newenham of the lands & tenements of the which William Hathewy was seized in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died.

The said William held in his demesne as of fee at St. Breavell on the day that he died the tenements underwritten of the King in chief by the service of the serjeanty of finding in the time of War at the Castle of St. Breavell one man for 40 days with a horse and arms at his own charge and of being CHIEF FORESTER of the Lord the King throughout all the Forest of Dene.

There is there one messuage with a garden which is worth per annum 20 pence. There are there 24 acres of arable land which are worth p.a. 4 shillings, price of the acre 2 pence. There are there 30 free tenants who hold divers tenements and pay by the year of rent of assise at Michaelmas & Easter 30 shillings.

The said William also held in his demesne as of fee at Lideneie of the Earl of Warwick by the service of one red rose 2½ acres of meadow & they are worth p.a. 3 shillings & 9 pence.

The said William also held in his demesne as of fee at Ruardyn the tenements underwritten of Alex. de Bykenore, by the service of paying per annum 4 shillings and 9 pence for all services. There is there one messuage with a garden which is worth p.a. 12 pence. There are there 30 acres of arable land which are worth p.a. 5 shillings, price of the acre 2 pence. There is there the 4th part of a Mill which is worth p.a. 5 shillings. There are there free tenants who hold divers tenements and pay per annum of rent of assize at the same two terms 20 shillings.

William Hathewy, son of the said William, is his next heir and is aged 30 years and more[24].

WILLIAM HATHEWY the 4th. Son & heir of the last named, he was born about the year 1286. When a young man in 1306 we find him concerned (with a Robert Hathewy) in rescuing some cattle that were being impounded.[25] In 1313 we find him involved in some obscure intrigues in Monmouthshire, for I take the reference as more likely to concern him than his aged father. The Record runs: "Commission of Oyer and Terminer upon complaint of Robert Darcy to whom the King lately committed the custody of the Castle and Honor of Striguil (Mon.) with orders to appoint John de Patteshulle to be his lieutenant in those parts while he remained by the King on his service. John de Patteshulle upon hearing of the approach of Complainant to view his Office carried away as well the King's goods belonging to the Castle and Honor as the goods of the complainant & also his commission as Keeper to Lamyhangle (i.e. Llanfihangel, Mon.) within the liberty of the Earl of Hereford . . . so that that trespass may remain unpunished, and passed from thence into the Liberty of the Earl of Gloucester, of USK in Wales. And further that the said John before his withdrawal from those parts drew to himself William Hathewey. . . . and many others of the tenants of the Honor by livery of robes to them and in other ways and conspiring with them ordered that when the complainant should come to these parts to view his office that neither they nor any other tenants of the Honor should attend to him or answer to him"[26]

His father's lands were delivered to him in July 1316 pursuant to a Writ to the excheator dated 12 July for the delivery to William Hathewy, son & heir of William Hathewy tenant in chief the lands late of his said father, he having done homage"[27]

During the stormy period of the Civil Wars which devastated the later years of Edward 2nd William was compelled by the strategic importance of St. Briavel's Castle to take an active part on the Royal side. The struggle between the Contrariants under the Earl of Lancaster and the King is well known. Suffice to say that Edward kept Christmas at Cirencester in 1321. Marching through Gloucestershire he forced Maurice de Berkeley to surrender Berkeley Castle and Gloucester. On the 28 February 1322 the Royal levies were assembled at Coventry and on the 16 March Lancaster was totally defeated at Boroughbridge and subsequently executed.

Two official records throw light on the nature of William's activities. On the 23rd January we find "William de Hathewy" one of six commissioners appointed to seize into the King's hands the Castle of St. Briavels lately taken by the Contrariants and to keep it safe, and also they are to arrest and imprison the said contrariants until further order. Writ of aid for them in County Gloucester[28].

On the 25 March, he was commissioned with Philip Joce and Reginald de Albenhale to raise 500 men in the Forest of Dene[29].

In 1327/8 we find him & his wife Agnes in a lawsuit over lands in Dun Hatherley (Glos.) Their opponents were . . . Roger de Burghull and his wife Sibyle, grantors in a fine, and Thos. de Berkeleye grantee[30].

William died in 1330. On the 6 February of that year the Escheator was commanded to take into the King's hand "omnes terras et tenementa quae fuerunt Will. de Hathewy def."[31]

WILLIAM HATHEWY the 5th. This William was the son of Ralph Hathewy and was born in 1300 (At Michaelmas)[32]

His father died in 1317, when William succeeded to his estates in Rodmore, Lydney, Minsterworth and LaHorestone in the Forest of Dene. The full details will be found under "Ralph the 1st" so there is no need to repeat here.

In official documents he is usually styled "William Hathewy" of Rodmore or Minsterworth in order to distinguish him from his cousin of the same name who was called "William Hathewy of Ruardyn"

Unfortunately there is nothing to show which of the two was a Forester of Fee in the Forest of Dene[33] A William Hathewy appears as such in documents dated 1337,1338[34]

We find him fulfilling varied official duties. In 1336 he was ordered (jointly with Henry Dymmock and William de Merssh) to "follow, arrest and bring before the Council at York William Lewelyn of Little Dene[35]. The journey to York from W. Gloucestershire must have been a wearisome one in those days!

In 1347 he was appointed collector of Wools in Gloucestershire[36].

On the 26 Sept. 1349 he was appointed one of the subsidy collectors for the county in the room of his cousin William Hathewy of Ruardyn. The appointment was repeated on the 20 July 1350. But on the 16th February 1351 he in his turn was displaced[37].

These were the years following the devastations of the Black Death when all England was depopulated and beggared making the due collection of taxes almost impossible.

At the same time the scarcity of labour led to the workers demanding what were considered extortionate wages. To remedy this, the statute of Labourers (23 Edward 3 st.2) was enacted. This ordered that "all able bodied labourers, either sex, within the age of 3 score . . . should serve any one who needed his services and this for such wages and livery as was accustomed to be given in that neighbourhood in the 20th year". Owing to the ineffectiveness of this statute it was re-enacted in the 25th year, with more precise definition as to wages.

The above will explain his next official duty. On the 30 March 1351 William Hathewy of Rodmore was appointed one of seven Commissioners to assess all workmen, servants and artificiers in the County of Glos. who have received wages in excess of those paid in the 20th year or the 5 or 6 common years preceding and to levy the sums due from them in accordance with the recent Ordinance[38]

We have seen that William was displaced as a Subsidy Collector on the 14 February 1351. However he was now, on the same 30 March 1351, replaced as one of 7 commissioners with power to arrest all persons "rebelliously resisting the levy of the portion due from them" and to commit them to prison.[39]

The last official duty performed by William was in 1354 when he was appointed with John Joce of the Forest of Dene" to seize into the King's hand and keep safely until further order the Priory of Estrogoill in Wales and the lands possessions and goods pertaining thereto".[40] This priory was an Alien one; hence its seizure during the time of the French Wars

WILLIAM HATHEWY the 6th. Though no actual record of his birth exists, he was evidently the son and heir of William the 4th. He was also most probably the "Forester of Fee" previously mentioned under dates 1337-1338.

On the 20 July 1348 he was commissioned (jointly with Ralph Bluet, John de Acton and Edmund Blund) to collect the subsidy. This commission was renewed on 16 July 1349.[41] Through the ravages of the Black Death, collection of taxes was rendered extremely difficult. Accordingly on the 1 April 1349 another Commission had been issued to Hathewy and his fellow commissioners: "reciting that, whereas the King by letters patent lately appointed them to levy the first year's collection of the last 10th and 15th for three years granted to the King in the County of Gloucester, he is informed that very many persons have hitherto rebelliously resisted the levy of the portion thereof due from them and that the undercollectors of the same & bailiffs of liberties attend in a very lukewarm and negligent manner to the collection; and appointing them to arrest all such offenders & commit them to prison until he give further order touching them[42]

These new powers however proved of little avail and the four commissioners were all displaced on the 26 Sept. 1349.[43] One of the new commissioners was William's cousin, William Hathewy of Rodmore. He himself was termed "William Hathewy of Ruardyn" to distinguish him from this latter.

Besides his Glos. estates William owned property in Ganarew (Herefordshire) being patron of the church there. In 1340 he presented Robert de Rotheram to the living.[44] He died in 1350 leaving as heir a lad: Walter Hathewy.[45]

WILLIAM HATHEWY the 7th: William Hathewy gent. of St. Briavell appears as witness in a doc. dated 30 May 1493.[46] He died in 1511 his will being preserved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury.

NIGEL the 1st: Son of William Hathewy. He and his wife, Sarra, appear in a mortgage deed to Flaxley Abbey dated 1200. As the earliest existing Hathewy document, I quote it verbatim:

"Carta Nigelli Hathewi. Sciant presenter et futuri quod ego Nigellus filius Willelmi Hathewi cum voluntate et consensu Sarrae uxoris mere invadiavi Monachis de Dene totum pratum meum quod habio in Marisco tenendum quinque annis ut jus inde recipiant quinque falcationes et dimidium foenum sextis annis pro viginti solidis quos mihi prae manibus dederunt. Hanc conventionem feci cum praedictis monachis ad festum S.Mich. proimum post coronationem Johannis Regis et post illud festum habibit [should be habebunt] praedictas falcationes et cum suum plenum habuerunt monachi pratum meum omnino quietum ad me revertitur".[47]

The Latin construction is very quaint!

In 1220 Nigel and other serjeants of fee in the Forest of Dene were permitted to have itinerant forges there. "Servientes de feodo in Foresta de Dene habere forgias suas itinerantes in eadem foresta ad mortuum et ad siccum sicut eos habere consueverunt temporibus Johannie Regis patris nostri et Ricardi Regis avunculi nostri"[48]

Forges were fixed and itinerant. The authorities kept up a constant struggle with the dwellers in the Forest of Dene to limit the number of Forges and thus check the destruction of timber used. In 1282 there were 72 itinerant forges in the Forest, licensed by the Crown at 7 shillings each per annum[49]

NIGEL the 2d and 3d: Evidently the son of the earlier Nigel.

In 1237 he and Roger Wither were empowered to inquire into the illegal Forge problem in the Forest[50]

In 1240/1241 he was a collector for the exchequer of the assart firm in Grenewey being in debt to the treasury when the Accounts were made up.[51]

For some reason unstated the King had agreed to pay Nigel "every year 5 marks until 100 marks have been paid" . . . a very large sum in those days![52] But Nigel did not enjoy it for long. He died in 1248 leaving a son and heir William[53]

A third Nigel Hathewy appears in the following century[54] as the father of John, my only reference to the latter. John was an unruly character having been imprisoned in 1345 for "trespasses & excesses committed in the F. of Dene"[55]

RALPH HATHEWY the 1st. He was most probably a brother of the William Hathewy who was Warden of the Forest of Dene. In the Perambulation of 1281/2 we find him designated "Bailiff of Bleyth" (Now known as Bley)[56] The Forest was divided into 10 bailiwicks, each under its special Bailiff who executed under the King such direct powers as might be customary under Forest laws. Bley was one of these.

About this time Bishop R. de Swinfeld of Llandaff obtained from the King, by grant, the appropriation of his great tithes to make up for his slender income. These were farmed by Ralph Hathewy. In 1290 when the Bishop visited Newland (a parish in the hundred of St. Briavel's) we find Ralph furnishing him with the necessary supplies.[57]

In 1292 he received a mandate to deliver certain castles and manors in Monmouth & Glos. to the custody of William Hathewy [58]

At the great Perambulation of the Forest in 1300 he appears as one of the Verderers[59]

On the 1st June 1307 the Castle of USK and the appurtenant bailiwick were committed to Ralph during pleasure[60] On the 24 June he was ordered to deliver them to the Earl of Gloucester.[61]

A few years later he was elected coroner for Glos. an important post in those days confined to the owners of a Knight's fee. As Ralph did not possess property to that extent he was pronounced "insufficiently qualified" & the Sheriff was told (1 October 1315) to cause another coroner to be elected in his place[62]

He died the following year. The Order to the Escheator " to take into the King's hand the land late of Ralph Hathewy deceased, tenant in chief" is dated 6 May 1316[63]

The Inquisition (held on the Thursday after the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr) detailed the following properties:—

Rodmore. A messuage with a garden & dovecote, and 30 acres arable held of the King in chief as of his manor of St. Breavell by service of 4 shillings yearly rent at the Castle of St. Breavell and suit of court there. The said messuage with the garden & dovecote is worth per annum 12 pence and the said 30 acres are worth p.a. 15 shillings at 6 pence per acre.

La Horestone in the Forest of Dene. 60½ acres of new assart held jointly in their demesne as of fee by the said Ralph and Elizabeth his wife of the King in chief by service of rendering 25 shillings and 2½ pence yearly by the hands of the Sheriff. It is worth nothing beyond.

Lideneye (i.e. Lydney) 5 acres land, 4 acres meadow and 6 shillings & 8 pense yearly rent held of Sarra Talebot by service of 12 shillings yearly rent. The said 5 acres of land are worth p.a. 20 pense at 4 pense per acre. The 4 acres of meadow 6 shillings at 18 pence.

Munstreworth (i.e. Minsterworth) A messuage with a garden worth 23 shillings & 4 pence p.a., 20 acres of arable with 13 shillings & 4 pence p.a. and 10 acres meadow worth 15 shillings p.a. Held of Henry de Lancaster by service of rendering 39 shillings and 7 pence yearly. William his son aged 16 at the Feast of Michaelmas last is his next heir.[64]

On the 24 January 1317 an order was issued to the Escheator "pursuant to an Inquisition made by him showing that Ralph Hathewy held certain tenements in Rodmore in chief as of the Manor of St. Briavels by the service of rendering 4/= of yearly rent at the Castle of St. Briavels and doing suit at the court of St. Briavels every 3 weeks, and that he held no other lands in chief as of the Crown whereby the keeping of his lands should pertain to the King and that William his son is his nearest heir & of the age of 16 years, to deliver the said lands & tenements, he having done fealty"[65]

RALPH HATHEWY the 2nd. He was accused in 1319 (with Nigel Hathewy and others) of breaking into the Earl of Pembroke's park at Painswick and hunting there.[66] This is my only reference. He was probably a younger son of the former Ralph.

RALPH HATHEWY the 3rd. Though I term him the 3rd he may be identified with the last named; in any case his lands lay in the same districts as those of Ralph the 1st. Thus in 1359 he is given as owning land in Morcote in the parish of Minsterworth[67] in which parish he appears as a juror in 1379[68] If identical with the Ralph of 1319, he would then be a very old man. He was on Inquisitions at Rodel in 1361 and at Gloucester in 1371, 1374 and 1375.[69]

According to Nicholls he was seised of 40 acres in Holstone in the Forest of Dene during the reign of Edward 3rd.[70] But he gives no authority and I fear that the statement is an error for the 1st Ralph.[71]

HENRY. He was a Forester of Fee in the Forest of Dene in 1337,1338[72] But unmounted, being one of the "Forestariorum peditum in eadem foresta."[73]

THOMAS the 1st. He was chief Forester (i.e. Warden) of the Forest of Dene[74] In 1344 when a young man we find him concerned in an extraordinary outrage. With the three Priors of Barnstaple, Montacute and Bermondsey respectively & their followers he aided in the expulsion from his monastery of William de Bitinden, Prior of St. James by Exeter. This unfortunate ecclesiatic was dragged by them to Bermondsey Priory, imprisoned there and finally smuggled over to France where "he was delivered to the King's enemies who held him to ransom".[75]

On the 24 Jan. 1373 he was appointed joint subsidy collector for Glos. with John Brounyng. They were to levy "the 1/15 and 1/10 for one year granted to the King in the room of John Clifford whom the King has thought fit to remove utterly from such levying because he still owes the King great sums of money of the issues of the county since the time he was Sheriff thereof, which sums he has not yet levied from his debtors, so that he cannot fittingly attend at one and the same time to the levying of the 10th and 15th and the levying of the said sums."

Their instructions give one to understand what a troublesome business this tax gathering must have been to the subsidy collectors. Hathewy and Brownyng were ordered "to go from town to town and from place to place and to summon before them 2 men and the Reave from each town and the Mayor and Bailiffe and 4 men from each city and borough, enjoining on them that they cause the same to be levied and delivered to the commissioners by one or two men of each of the said towns, cities & boroughs, or else to levy the same from them themselves; and order to the Earls, Barons, knights, freemen and the whole Commonalty of the County and to the Bailiffs and Commonalities of cities, towns and boroughs and to the Sheriff to be intendant, and to the Sheriff to distrain with the Commissioners those who refuse to pay."[76]

The same year (1373) saw Thomas elected Knight of the Shire for Glos. His fellow M.P. was Thomas Gifford of Weston. They were paid £10=16=0 for 29 days' service.[77]

Discontent was rife throughout the land, culminating a few years later in the peasants' rebellion under Wat Tyler and Jack Straw. This will explain the commissions issued to Thomas Hathewy and other County gentry in 1375. By the first they were ordered to arrest three men of Ruardyn and bring them St. Briavel's Castle. By the second, certain mob leaders were mentioned by name. These included "William Smyth who has called himself "Sire John Geffrey" and "Admiral", Richard Shait who has called himself "Sir William Ricche Me Never" and John Smyth who has called himself "Sir Richard Mis Avysed" These were to be arrested and brought to the Tower of London.[78]

Thomas died in January 1376. On the 20th January the Escheator was ordered "to take into the King's hand and keep safely until further notice the lands whereof Thomas Hathewy who held in chief was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day of his death."[79]

The Inquisition was taken at Great Dene on the 3rd February. As follows:—

"Thomas de Hathewy held of the King in chief on the day he died in his demesne as of fee, a capital messuage at ruardyn worth nothing a year beyond the reprises, a dovecot worth 2 shillings, 80 acres of arable land worth ½ a mark, 26 shillings and 8 pence rents of assize payable at the Feasts of the Annunciation and St. Michael. All held by 4 shillings payable to the King's Castle at St. Briavel.

"He also held at Seyn Brevel a messuage worth nothing a year beyond the reprise; 40 acres of arable land worth 40 pence. These he held of the King in chief by the services of 28 shillings yearly and of being the King's Chief Forester throughout the Forest of Dene.

"The said Thomas died 2 January last. Elizabeth, one of his daughters is aged 10; Sybil the second is aged 8; Ellen the third 7 and Maud, the fourth 5. They are his next heirs."

By a second Inquisition taken at Ruardyn on the 4th February 1382

the first three only are given as co-heiresses, so Maud must have died in the interval.[80]

The Hathewys of Ruardean thus became extinct in the third male line. The "proofs of age" of two of the co-heiresses have survived.

The Wardship of Thomas's co-heiresses. The first grant is dated 10 Feb. 1376: "Grant to Henry Morton of the keeping of the Bailiwick of Rewardene in the Forest of Dene which has come into the King's hand by reason of the nonage of the heirs of Thomas Hathewy, who held it of the King in fee, to hold during such nonage."[81]

The second dated 24 July 1376 runs: "Commitment to Thomas de Bokyngham of the wardship of 2 parts of all the lands in the County of Gloucester late of Thomas Hathewy who held in chief to hold the same with the issues since the death of the said Thomas Hathewy until the lawful age of his daughters and heirs, together with their marriages, and so from heir to heir rendering 25 shillings and 9¼ pence yearly for the wardship and proportionate sums for the pourparties as they are left in his hand by equal portions at the Easter & Michaelmas Exchequers, and paying 40/= in hand for the marriages, provided that he find fit sustenance for the said heirs, keep the two parts without waste and destruction and do the real service and other charges incumbent thereon"[82]

Marriage of Isabel, otherwise Elizabeth, Order dated 11 March 1382 to the Escheator of Glos. pursuant to an Inquisition showing that the heiresses of Thomas Hathewy were "Isabel one of the daughters of the said Thomas whom Thomas Wallewyn has taken to wife, Sibyl, his second daughter and Ellen his third daughter; Isabel being of full age and the others minors. He was to make a partition of the premises into three equal parts in the presence of the said Thoms Walleweyn and Isabel and of the next friends of Sibyl and Ellen and deliver to Thomas and Isabel Isabel's pourparty thereof, retaining the other pourparties in the King's hand until further order, as Isabel has proved her age before the said Escheator, as appears by the Proof of Age returned into chancery; and the King has thereupon taken the fealty of Thomas for her pourparty."[83]

Isabel's Proof of Age which had been taken on the 3rd of March before the Escheator at Ruardean makes quaint reading!

"Isabel was born at Rewardyn on Sunday after St. John Baptist's day 38 Edward 3rd (1364) and was baptized in the church there. Thomas de Falleye (aged 60) recollects because on that day he was putting a house together in that vill. Cotteler and Westhale (aged 72) were in the church and remember because on that day the Parishioners there bought an image of the B.V.M. which is still there. Garoun, Hooke and Shephurde bought a messuage and virgate of land there and had saisin thereof the same day. Gybons (aged 47)

Wyther and Shayte (aged 47) remember because on that day they and others began to make and fill up the foundations of the Belfry of the said church."[84]

Marriage of Sibyl. Also Ellen's Proof of Age. These are detailed together in a Close Roll dated 1 May 1391 wherein the Escheator of Glos. was ordered "to give Nicholas Hyde and Sibyl his wife seisin of her purparty of the lands of Thomas Hathewy certifying in chancery what he shall do." (A recital follows of the Inquis.p.m. of Thos. Hathewy and of Isabel's Proof of Age.)

The age of Ellen being proved, the King took her homage and fealty and on the 3rd May last ordered John Skydemore (late Escheator) to give her seisin of her purparty keeping in his hand until further order the purparty of Sibyl. And now the said Nicholas has proved the age of Sibyl before Thomas Oldecastell"[85]

The Ruerdean property was long known as the "Manor of Hathewy's Court". Between 1430-1460 it pertained to John Tiptoft, Earl of Worcester, later going to the Baynham family.[86]

A hunting horn of stone (symbol of the Warden of the Forest) carved on a fire place chimney is still visible in St. Briavel's Castle.[87]

THOMAS the 2nd. He was brother of Walter Hathewy of Ruardyn and thus a younger son of William Hathewy the 6th. He and his brother seem to have been wild young men. In 1356 they were charged (together with John Hathewy of Lodebrok and others) of banding together to hunt and commit outrages in the Forest of Dene.[89]

JOHN the 1st. The first reference is a Patent dated 31 January 1318, when John Hathewy was granted the bailiwick of the Forestership in the Forest of Dene "lately held by Nicholas de Long".[89]

In 1324 John accompanied Bishop Alexander of Dublin beyond the seas on the King's service, being granted letters of Protection (with the prized clause volumus) for one year.[90]

In 1358 a writ was issued to Thomas de Astone, John Hathewy and John Joce to open an Inquisition re the repair of the weir in the Severn called Hynewere.[91] Their report was "The weirs of the Duke of Lancaster, Gilbert Talbot, the Abbot of Gloucester and John Gyse in the Severn are so firmly and closely built that there is no space between the rods.

"Will. Baghot the elder, Richard Court & others hewed down the weir of Hynewere to the damage of 20 marks to the Abbot and Covent of Flaxlye.

"If this weir is repaired as firmly and closely as the other wiers named it is not to the damage of the King or of any other provided that the

King has 2 shillings yearly for the whole weir from the Abbots of Flaxleye and Pershore according to the charter of Henry the 3rd.[92]

In 1360 John was one of 4 commissioners appointed to levy the moiety of the 15th and 10th granted the King. The money collected was to be deposited in St. Peter's Abbey, Gloucester.[93]

In 1361 he was appointed a constable, Guardian of the Peace and Justice of Oyer & terminer in Glos.[94]

He died soon after being noted as dead in a document dated 8 Mar. 1362.[95]

JOHN the 2nd (of Lodebrok). On the 6th of June 1345 a warrant was issued for the arrest of John Hathewy (son of Nigel) and others "for trespasses done by them in the King's Forest of Dene". The accused were to be sent to the Tower of London.[96]

The family interest hindered the enforcement of the warrant. And on the 16 August John Joce was commanded to show cause why the culprits had not been arrested.[97]

John does not seem to have reformed his ways and in 1356 we find him with Walter Hathewy and Thomas Hathewy banded with others to hunt and commit outrages in the Forest of Dene, terrorising the whole district.[98]

Walter. Walter was the son of William Hathewy of Ruerdyn. His father died in 1350, when he was still under age being a ward of the Crown.[99]

IN 1356 he was concerned in the local outrages just referred to. I quote the official writ (dated 3 May 1356) in full:

Commission of Oyer and Terminer on the complaint that John Hathewy of Lodebrok, Walter Hathewy of Ruardyn, Thomas Hathewy his brother and many others "forcibly entered the King's Forest of Dene, hunted there, felled trees to the value of £ 20, carried away those trees and deer, broke down and consumed his crops there to the value of 40 marks with carts and beasts, burned the underwood rushes and heath the growing there for a covert of his deer, prevented his ministers from levying his rents and the amercements incurred by his tenants in the Forest in his courts there or executing mandates of him, his justices or other ministers . . . That these wildoers banded together by oath have at divers times made various assaults on the Foresters as well as his other ministers of the Forest, and that the men dwelling in the country dare not indict them before the Justices of the Forest because of their power and malice, and the poor of those parts cannot obtain justice for injustice inflicted upon them unless they first make ransome to the same evildoers or one of them."[100]

It is a strange story, of which one would like to know the other side! During the same years the exactions and tyranny of the Black Prince's officials in the Forest of Macclesfield were beyond belief. It is perhaps possible that these "evildoers banded together by oath" may merely have been local folk determined that the ruin inflicted on the Macclesfield freeholders should not be their lot also!

In the following year (3 Mar. 1357) we find Walter Hathewy, as patron, presenting Richard Le Parkere to the Vicarage of Ganarew.[101] This is my last reference. [to a Hathewy of the Forest of Dene.]

Gilbert. In 1221 Gilbert Hathewi of the hundred of Blidesloe was charged with beating Hugh Chark and breaking his teeth: "Hugo Chark appellat Walt. Balle, Gilbertum Hathewi, Paganum f. sacerdotis quod nequiter verberarerunt eum et fregerunt dentes suas."[102]

The Shakespearian District

It is well known that Shakespeare was personally familiar with the country bordering on Dursley. Act II Scene 3 of Richard 2nd set in "the wilds of Gloucester" with the speech beginning "How far is it my Lord to Berkeley now?" could only have been written by someone who had actually viewed the Castle from that neighbourhood. Again the line in Act V Scene 1 of the 2nd part of Henry the 4th "I beseech you, sir, to countenance William Visor of Woncot against Clement Perkes of the Hill" refers according to the commentators to Woodmancot and Stinchcombe Hill.

The probable explanation is that the poet spent some little time with one or other of his Hathaway connections in the district. We have an ample choice, there being families of the name in all the surrounding villages. We shall take them in turn.

Dursley. Anthony Hathway appears in the list of "able & sufficient men in body fit for H.M.'s service in the wars, within the Country of Gloucester" compiled by John Smith of Nibley in 1608[103]

Cam (1 mile from Dursley)

1) Richard Hathway married Katherin Somers[104] 5 Nov. 1593
2) Thomas Hathaway married Margery Aly[104] Feb. 1601
3) John Hathway, servant to William Bendall appears in Smith's list as above. 1608

Thornbury.

1) Watar Hathway married Margaret Ady 20 Oct. 1561
2) James Denning married Isabella Hathway 18 Jan. 1574
3) William Hatheway married Jane Cambie 20 Oct. 1575[105]

Morton in Thornbury. Will of William Hathway of M. in T. proved at Gloucester in 1599[106]

Nibley (2 miles from Dursley)

1) Will of John Hathway of North Nibley, proved in 1595[106]

2) Henry Hathaway purchased various properties in Nibley 1605-1606, partly alone and partly in conjunction with W. Gibbs. They were: Bassett's Court; Foules Grove; Bellamies Place; Jobbin's Land. Bought in part for prompt re-sale.
Henry's wife was Katherine Birton[107]

Berkeley (4 miles from Dursley)

1) Will of William Hathway proved in 1590
2) Will of William Hathway proved in 1593
3) Will of Florence Hathway, proved in 1593[106]

Wotton Under Edge In 1548 Sir John Thynne and Lawrence Hyde were granted chantry lands in Wotton of the yearly value of 67 shillings & 5 pence, then in the tenure of Richard Hathway and 7 others[108]

Stinchcombe (2½ miles from Dursley) Woodmancote was at the foot of the Hill. The Hatheways had property in Stinchcombe as far back as 1250

There was thus ample choice of Hatheway families for Shakespeare to stay with in his early days. The puzzle is to settle on which one.

Another point. I have already given a note of the popular leaders in the Forest of Dene whose activities, in 1375 Thomas Hathway was commanded to suppress.[109] Did traditions of these disturbances linger with the family to be remembered and utilized by the poet in his Jack Cade scenes?

BRISTOL

In March 1407 when their "Ordinances and Articles" were granted and confirmed to the masters, burgesses of the craft of Dyeing in Bristol, John Hathewey appears as a Master Dyer.[110]

10 June 1415 Pardon of outlawry granted to John Algar of Glos. for not appearing to answer Nicholas Hathewey of Bristol touching a debt of 10 marks.[111] I found the same Nicholas witnessing a Bristol deed of 1419 owned by a Mr. Whitmore of that City.

In 1509 I find a John Hatheway halier (i.e. tiler) of Bristol attached for a debt of 17/=[112]

In 1548 amongst some Chantry property granted to Sir Miles Partriche and his brother Hugh are mentioned: "two messuages and tenements late in the tenure of John Hathewey on LeKey within St. Stephen's par. Bristol.[113]

In the rough draft of the will of Henry Gray of Bristol dated 1551 (owned by Mr. Whitmore) is the clause: "item, I gyve to Thomas Hathwaye my wyffe's father 13 shillings & 4 pence" This was struck out by the testator and written above: "Item, I gyve to Thomas Hathwaye my wyffe's father a freyse coote and doblett and a payre of hosyn"[114]

MINSTERWORTH

For the lands owned in Minsterworth by the Hathways of the Forest of Dene, the reader is referred to my notes under Ralph I and II and William V[115]

Later Hathways connected with the village are:

1) Eustace Hathewy. In 1329 John de Lodebrok, clerk, staying in

England, had letters nominating Henry Avenel and Eustace Hathewy his attorneys in Ireland for 2 years.[116]

In 1337 Eustace was presented to the vicarage of Minsterworth[117], but two years later the Bishop of Hereford was notified "of the revocation of the late presentation of Eustace Hathewy"[118]. No reason was given.

2) John Hathewy. In 1405 an Inquisition reveals that John Kenne held a messuage and a virgate of land in Mynstreworth from John Hathewy in socage by the service of 22 pence yearly; worth 20 shillings"[119]

He witnesssed a deed of Thomas Attewoode of Morecote in 1412.[120]

3) Richard Hathewy. The registers of the Bishops of Hereford supply us with all the dates in his ecclesiastical career.[121] The earliest is 20 September 1365 when "Richard Hathewy de Munstreworth" was ordained an Acolyte in Ledbury Church. 21 March 1366, subdeacon in Churcham Church. 4 April 1366 deacon in Bosbury Church. 19 December 1366 Priest in Bromyard. Finally 19 Sept. 1377 he became Vicar of Awre on the resignation of Thos. Byllyng, being presented by Llanthony Priory.

4) Ralph Hathaway. The will of Ralph Hathaway of Minsterworth was proved in 1494.[122]

HORTON

FAIRFORD

An inquisition held in 1307 shows that Robert Hathewy and Thomas Hathewy were then customary tenants of the Manor of Fairford, owned by the Earl of Gloucester and his wife Joan. Each held ½ a virgate in villeinage, for which each performed the moiety of the Works of William atte Zate who held one virgate in villeinage.. These were:

Payment at Christmas of 12 pence per annum
38 weeks from Michaelmas to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist: i.e. 152 works to wit 4 works each week which are worth 6 shillings and 4 pence: price of work ½ penny
Plough 3 acres of land per annum. Worth 9 pence
Harrow 1 acre at Lent sowing. Worth 1¼ pence
From the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist to the Gule of August 20 works. By the week 4 works worth 15 pence.
Price of work 3 farthings
From the Gule of August to Michaelmas 32 works. 4 works by the week worth 4 shillings: price of each work 1½ pence.

Owes bedripes in autumn worth 12 pence. Price of each 1½ pence.

The above gives a good picture of the hard life led by the poor peasant in the early Middle Ages.[123]

Query if the above named Robert was identical with the Robert Hathewy concerned in 1306 with William Hathewy in the rescue of the beasts of John de Lyuns[124]

CHELTENHAM

On the 27 November 1562 Henry Hathaway married Joan Reynolde.[125]

In 1577 Henry Hathaway of Cheltenham and his wife appear in a list of Recusants sent by the Bishop of Gloucester to the Priory Council. Their goods were valued at £ 4. This is the sole case of recusancy that I've noted of the name.[126]

I also find that at a View of Frankpledge, Hundred of Berkeley, taken in 1543 before Sir Anthony Kingston (chief steward) Thomas Hatheway was elected Constable of "Kyngescott"[129]

CITY OF GLOUCESTER

No Hatheway appears to have been connected with the City, though their name naturally appears amongst jurors at Inquisitions. In the Rental of the Houses in the City taken in 1455, there is no reference to them. The priest Richard Hathewy of Minsterworth was for a short time ( in 1366) chaplain of St. Bartholomew' s Hospital, Gloucester;[130] this temporary reference is their sole connection.

"Whereas the King took John, Bishop of Worcester, his Chancellor into his special protection, Henry Atte More, Thomas Hathewy of Cherleton, Walter de Stoke (and others) at Hembury in Saltmerssh carried away his goods while so under protection, assaulted his servant Henry de Wotton (whereby he lost his services for a great time) and by conspiracy procured his bondmen and other tenants of the same town to refuse to do their service due to him and so he had to expend a great sum before he could compel them by law to do the said service"[131]

He gave his age as 40 or more*[139]. The Brownings owned the Manor of Rooberugh (Minchinhampton) and lands in Throp. Walter probably belonged to one or other of these localities.

5) Marion. Sir John Greyndour is said to have married Marion, daughter of one of the Hatheways of Ruardean, their son being the Robert Greymdour who died in 1443[140] . But no proof has ever been forthcoming, and the lady' s existence even appears doubtful!

He was concerned in several lawsuits. By the first 7 December 1563 "Ricardus Hathewey queritur v. Robertum Millis in placito debiti". 22 Dec. 1563 "Ad istam curiam Robertus Millis solempniter exactus super placitum Ricardi Hathewey debiti; et non venit. Ideo ipese in misericordia 4 D. et petit ut distringatur".[155] On the 28 August 1566 the suit began in which John Skakespeare was involved as surety. I shall use for this Mr. Fripp's summary:

28 Aug. 1566. John Page iron mongor sued Richard Hathaway for a debt of £8. He obtained a writ of capias whereby the serjeants at the mace were authorized to bring the defendant into Court. John Shakespeare became his surety. The writ was granted by the Bailiff and signed by the steward. The serjeants reported that they had brought Hathaway into Court. Upon Richard's declaration of inability to pay, plaintiff asked for an injunction against Shakespeare. At the same time a suit against Richard by another creditor, Joan Biddle, for a debt of £11 reached a like stage. Alderman Shakespeare, being again Richard's pledge, precepts were granted to both Page and Joan Biddle to distrain on his goods for the amounts claimed (£19 in all). In the end Richard probably paid, his harvest gathered in.[157]

THE NAME HATHEWYKE

If the name "Hathewyke" could be shown to be identical with that of Hatheway, it would push back by quite 100 years the first appearance of our family in Stratford-upon-Avon. But I feel sure that it is quite a distinct family! "Hatheway" appears in all sorts of curious spellings, but there is always the right spelling in some other passage. But in every case the Hathewyke entries stand by themselves. The two Stratford-upon-Avon entries are:

25th Henry 6th Tenement in Sheepe Strete late John Wyards and now John Hathewyks.

13th Edward 4th Shepee Strete. Tenement of John Hathewyke now in tenure of John Haseley.[183]

A still earlier Warwickshire reference is in the year 1413 when William Hathewyke appears as an attorney in a suit heard in Warwick.[184]

The next is dated 1441, when John Hatherwyke of Wolverton "gentilman" and Agnes his wife were entered as members of the Gild of the Holy Cross, Stratford Upon Avon.[185]

In Glos. a Walter Hathewyk appears as serjeant of the hundred of Deerhurst in 1221.[186] I entered him under the Hatheways because of an uncertainty, but prefer now to place him in this distinct family.

P.S. In the Bloom mss. in the Birmingham Public Library is a memo of the sale by John Hathwyke (4 Jan.21 Edw.4th) to William Catesby for £ 200 of the Manor of Oxhill with the advowson there.[187]

"Elmdon" is thus simply my conjecture.*

2) In the wills registered in the Consistory Court of the Bishop of Lichfield & Coventry appear those of John Hathowaye 1581 and Richard Hatheway 1599[196] Query if latter is Richard of Leek Wootton?

WORCESTERSHIRE

In the early Middle Ages there were Hatheways of the yeoman class in a number of Worcestershire villages. But most of the families either died out or migrated elsewhere. The subsidy Rolls for 1280 and 1327 find families of the name in no less that 8 different villages. but in the rolls for 1332/3; 1346; 1358; 1427/9 they have one and all disappeared!

Pope Boniface IX to the Bishop of Worcester. Mandate to absolve William Hattewy of Hartlebury and Agnes Atte Walle from excommunication incurred and after separating them for a time, to dispense them to remain in the marriage contracted by them, knowing that they were related in the third degree of affinity, declaring past and future offspring legitimate.[204]

William must have been a man of substance to have secured this letter.

MARTLEY (otherwise Great Markeleye)

The charters of St. Swithin's Church, Worcester,[205] contain many references to the Hathaways of Martley. As under:

LONDON

1) The Hatheways settled early in London. The earliest in date is:

William Hathewy. At an Inquest held at Queenhithe in July 1301 on a boy accidentally drowned a neighbour was attached by William H.[206]

2) William, the King's Baker, had a busy time during the first years of Edward 2nd On the 10 November 1307 a writ of aid was issued for "William Hathewy the King's baker dispatched to France to make "preparations for the reception of the King and four days later he received Letters of protection (with the clause volumus*) until Easter.*[207]

This Royal journey was undertaken for the marriage of the King with Isabella of France. Edward crossed from Dover to Boulogne on 22 January 1308 and was married 3 days later, 25 January.

On the 13 Jan. 1310 William was admitted to the Freedom of the City of London. The official entry adds: "But he gives nothing because pardoned by the Mayor and Aldermen".[208]

a) 19 Jan. 1311. Writ of aid for William de Hathewy sent by the King throughout his kingdom to make purveyance of wheat. Carriage is to be provided for him to convey it with all speed to Berwick on Tweed.[209]

b) February 1311. William Hathewy the king's baker is purveying wheat and flour for the troops engaged in the Scotch War.[210] On the 1 December 1312 there is entered a grant to John de Merkingfeld (King's clerk) of £ 242=18=0 for corn bought from him for the expenses of the household by William Hathewy the King's baker in June 4th Edward 2nd.[211]

4) JOHN. In 1487 John Hathewey was executor of the will of John Adam, citizen & draper of London.[213]

5) RICHARD II. On the 20 November 1582, Richard Hathewaye of St. Laurence Old Jewry gentleman married Anne (otherwise Amy) Maddox, spinster, of the City of London. At St. Bartholomew's Exchange.[214]

6) RICHARD the dramatist. With no adquate reason writers like the contributor to the Dict.Nat.Biography have imagined this Richard Hathway to have belonged to Warwickshire. But as the preceding references show families of the name were long settled in London so that it may seem more suitable to make him a native of the City where he lived and wrote.

Our knowledge of this dramatist is confined to the entries in Henslowe's Diary. His name appears in the spellings Hathway — Hathewaye — Haythway with his autograph signature giving a fourth variant Hathwaye. He worked for the "Admiral's men" and for "Worcester's men". The names of his plays & payments for the same are as under:[215]

29 April 1598 Lent to Co. to pay Mr. Hathway for his book of Kynge Arthore £ 4

19 July 1598. Booke called Vallentyne and Orsen. (with Munday) £5

3 January 1600/1 (with W.Rawlins) "Hannibal and Scipio" 40/= in part payment.

10 January 1599/1600 (lent to Hathway, Munday, Drayton & Wilson) in earneste of a Playe boocke called Owen Teder £ .4

7 January 1602/3 "the Unfortunat Jenerall" (with Smith, Day & another)

1 March 1602/3 "The boss of Billingsgate" (with Day)

There are also verses by Hathaway in J. Bodeham's "Belvedere" 1600.

THE UNIVERSITIES (Cambridge and Oxford)

CAMBRIDGE

The career of Thomas Hatheway at Cambridge (1516-1537) is interesting as one can follow it step by step in the Grace Books. It is to be noted that each entry offers a new spelling of the name: Hadway — Hadwaye — Hathway — Hathwey — Hatheway — Hathewey which is rather a record!

In 1516-1517 Thomas appears amongst the Bachelors in Arts. "Item conceditur Thomae Hadway ut undecim termini in quibus ordinarius lectiones audivit per majorem partem cum responsionibus et opposicionibus requisitis sufficiant sibi ad respondendum questioni."[216]

To explain above, in a Cambridge disputation, the Respondent would open the discussion by dealing with the Question in his own way. The Opponents (of whom there might be several) would then urge objections which the Respondent had to meet. The Respondent would finally determine the question unless some person of superior standing were present to conclude the discussion.

In 1519-1520 he appears amongst the Masters in Arts. "Item conceditur Domino Hadwaye ut novem termini post ejus admissionem in quibus ordinaria audivit licet non secundum formam statuti cum duabus responsionibus et unica variacione infra annum in propria persona si tercium responsum acquiri nequit sufficiant sibi ad incipiendum in artibus.[217]

The term "variacie" in above extract meant that the Bachelor might choose to answer the same question as another Respondent, treating it in a different way.

The Theology course was the lengthy one of 10 years. So we do not find Thomas amongst the Bachelors in Theology till 1532-1533

1532-1533. "Item concediture Magistro Thomae Hathway ut studium octo annorum post ejus necessariam Regentiam cum una responsione vel pluribus si exigantur et duobus sermonibus uno ad clerum altero ad Crucem Pauli sufficiat ei ad opponendum et intrandum Libros Sententiarum sic quod admittatur ad opponendum anti Fest. Purificationis B.M. et stet opponens usque ad festum S. Barnabae"[218]

*The term "Regentia" in above would apply to Hathway as a Regent Master of Arts i.e. some one bound "regere scholas" to preside over a school. His Regency would last for a year only, during which period, besides delivering the usual lectures, he was bound to attend all masses, congregations and convocations.*

1532-1533. "Item concediture Magistro Thome Hathwey ut unica lectio in Libros Sententiarum sufficiat ei pro completa forma in illa lectura et non artetur ad ulteriorem residentiam."[219]

Thomas last appears in the Grace Books in the years 1536-1537.[220] He was the only Hathaway to graduate at Cambridge. Nor does the name appear in the County.

OXFORD

There are two definite Hathway graduates in the Registers:

1) Richard Hathaway. Admitted B.A. St. John's 5 February 1591/2. Determined (i.e. performed final exercises for B.A.) 1591/2.[221]

2) James Hathway or Haythway "Pleb. filius". Admitted B.A. Queen's 4 December 1601. Determined 1603-4[222]

IN addition there are the three Cumberland "Hathwats" who may perhaps be "Hathaways" (See in next section under "Cumberland") They were:

William of New 1564/5
Thomas of Oriel 1583
Alexander of Queens 1593.

As regards the County, I find one reference: 26 Jan. 1573 Symon Hathaway of Banbury married Myllicent Darbye (DARBYE)[223]

MISCELLANEOUS COUNTIES

BEDFORDSHIRE

Several Hathaways appear in the reign of Henry 3rd as customary tenants of Ramsay Abbey in Cranfield & Crowley (Beds.)

1) Gervaise Hethewy. Held 2 acres in Crawley of Eudo Palmere at a rent of 4 pence a year. Also half a virgate in Cranfield in villeinage of the Abbey. He was on a Cranfield inquest 13 Feb. 1244.[224]

2) Vivian Hathewy. Held one virgate in Cranfield in villeinage of the Abbey. Appears on undated Inquisition. The scribe had a difficulty with his name, which he spelt in one place Hetihluy.[225]

3) Roysia Hathewy, widow of Vivian. Held one virgate in Cranfield by the same service as her former husband. Another entry adds: "Eadem tenet tres buttes extra hydam et reddit inde duas gallinas ad festum S.Mich. Dat ad viginti solidos".[226]

It will be noted that all three had French Christian names.

4) Thomas Hathewy. Appears as a pledge at Cranfield 15 February 1294. "Radulfus homo Roberti Le Frend transivit hayam de Hokes pro bosco ad ignem querendo. Ideo est in misericordia 2 sol. Plegii Thomas Hathewy et Robertus de Molend"[227]

An antiquary of my acquaintance tells me that no later traces of these Bedford Hathaways can be found.

BERKSHIRE

1) Roger. Roger Hatheway was born circa 1263. He was a witness at the proof of age of John de Thedemerssh in 1318/9 when he gave his age as 55. Said he recollected the date of John's birth as on that day he bought of Peter de Burghfeld a virgate of land in Thedemersh (i.e. Tidmarsh)" and the date of the charter is evidence to him."[228]

2) Alexander. Alexander Hathwaet, vicar of Harwell (Berks) married An, widow of Lewis Johnes the former vicar, on 20 Oct. 1602.[229] He was a Cumberland man. (See under the County).

BUCKINGHAM

Richard. A certificate dated 1599 is in existence relative to a messuage and land in the occupation of Richard Hathaway and Walter Dennys.[230]

CUMBERLAND

The three following names from the Oxford University registers are rather puzzling, being in a variety of spellings. The correct name may be not Hathaway but Hathwaite. There is however no similar surname in the current Cumberland Directory.

1) Alexander. Hathwat, Hathwate, Hathwaet, Hathwait, Haethwait. Described as Cumberland: pleb. filius. Admitted B.A. Queens 13 December 1593. Determined 1593/4. Lic. M.A. 14 June 1596. Supplicated[231] B.D. at New Coll. 23 March 1617/8. Admitted, New Coll. 26 March. Became Vicar of Harwell (Berks) where on 20 Oct. 1602 he married An, widow of the former Vicar, Lewis Johnes.[232]

2) Thomas. Hathwat, Hethwhat, Heathwat, Hathaway. Described as Cumberland pleb. filius. Oriel Coll. 15 Nov. 1583. Admitted B.A. 16 Feb. 1587/8 Determined 1587/8. Lic. M.A. 6 July 1593. Incepted[233] 1593.

3) William. Heythwaite. New Coll. 1564/5.

HEREFORDSHIRE

The connection of the Hathaways of the Forest of Dene with Ganarew where they were patrons of the living, has been noted under Glos.

There was a branch also at Marcle as the following letters dimissory from the Bishop of Hereford prove:

22 August 1346. Johannes etc. dilecto in christo Willelmo Hathewy de Marcle nostre diocesis litterato, salutem graciam & benedictionem. Fusis pro te nobis precibus favorabiliter inclinati, ut a quocumque Episcopo Catholico sedis Apostolice graciam et sui execucionem officii optinenti tibique volente imponeri manus sacras ad primam tonsuram clericalem liciti valeas promoveri, eo non obstante quod de dicta nostra diocesi oruindus existis, adeo quod canonicum non obsistat, liberam tibi et circumque Eqiscopo te ordinare volenti tenore presencium concedimus facultatem"[234]

HERTFORDSHIRE

A William H. appears in King's Langley circa 1300.
11 November 1309. "Inspeximus & confirmation of a charter by William de Bedeworthe parson of the church of All Saints, Childelangele[235], which is in the king's patronage, granting in fee to William Hathwey a croft called Le Seven Acres bordering upon the highway from Berkhamstede to land called Aldewykes, subject to a yearly rent of 3 shillings in silver."[236]

William appears later on, in 1320, in a Bill of complaint by Jordan Moraunt, parson of Sawbridgeworth. This accused him of having (with a number of others) broken the gates of the parson's dwelling place "and the doors and windows of his houses at Sawbridgworth, driven away 7 horses and 40 sheep value L 40, threshed the corn in his barns, carried it and other of his goods away and seized and imprisoned his servants."[237]

KENT

In 1475 John Hathewey then in the service of the Friars of the Holy Trinity at Modenden in Kent, took an action against the Keeper of the gaol in York Castle and the Minister of the House of St. Robert of Knaresborough on account of his imprisonment for serving a citation.[238]

Probably identical with the John Hatheway of Headcorn (Kent) whose will was proved at Canterbury in 1492[239]

LEICESTER

28 August 1599. Henry Hatheway of Quorndon married Agnes Handy.[240]

NORTHANTS

10 Nov. 1400. "Commission to the Mayor and Coroner of Northampton re the escape of 8 prisoners, including John Hathewey, lately taken in the City on suspicion of larceny and other felonies and committed to the jail of the Castle of Northampton". It appears that after their escape, they took sanctuary in the Carmelite Church at Northampton.[241]

STAFFORDSHIRE

Bromley.

1) Thomas Hathewaye "cultor" and his wife Cristiana were assessed at 2/= in the Poll tax of 1379/80[242]

2) In 1411 Thomas Hathewey of King's Bromley witnessed a grant of Robert Wodeward of the same.[243]

Rideware Mauvesyn.

Avice Hatheweye was assessed at 12 pence in the Poll tax of 1379/80.[244]

Litchfield.

On 20 December 1482 John Hathewey was appointed Janitor of Litchfield Cathedral following the expulsion of Thomas Walker from that office.[245]

SUFFOLK

A certain John Hathewy appears in various lawsuits between 1219 & 1242. He belonged to Dunwich (East Suffolk) or neighbourhood.

1) 1219 Hugo Sperling essoniator Johannis Hathewis optulit se quarto die v. Edmundum filium Bernardi et Barth. de Rayndon de placito 60 librarum sterlingorum quas eidem Johanni commiserunt coustodiendas ut dicunt et ipsi non venerunt. Et ideo essoniator inde sine die.[246]

2) 1230. "Edmundus filius Bernardi 4 M. pro summonendo Johanne Hathewy.[247]

3) 1241/2 "Dunewic. Edmundus filius Bernardi 3 M. et dim. pro summonitione Johannis Atewy"[248]

SURREY

1399. Thomas Hatheway of Surrey is a mainpernour in a law suit.[249]

WILTSHIRE

1592. Walter Hathaway called up as a recruit in Wiltshire for the Irish campaign deserted.[250]

[52] Vide the Inquisition p.m. of William Hathewy in 1250 in these notes (p.6). The question is rendered more confusing by the statement that Nigel was in debt to the King at the time of his death—perhaps this refers to some deficit in the assart A/cs.

"Pages 1-52 were edited by John Cummins Hathaway"

33 Martha Benns mss. at Connecticut Historical Society, Hartford quotes source Rec. Com. Volume of Records for 1640, p. 50 for 4 heads in Nicholas Hathway's family and Pattee's HISTORY OF OLD QUINCY AND BRAINTREE, 9 heads. Bristol County Records, Vol. 2 p. 72 is source of deposition by John Hathway from which his age shown would make his birth about 1629.

Joseph Hathway of Taunton, admitted freeman 1657, was thought to be brother of John (Savage dict.) This assumption would complete the family of 4 on whose account the 36 acres were granted in 1640 (See Boston Commissioners, 1877, Volume of Records for 1640, page 50). The old Norfolk County books in Salem have been searched and no recording of this land was made therein. John's first purchase recorded in Taunton is the land called in 1658 the Street Farm, part of which is still owned by descendants, Clement[12] Hathaway and Joseph Charles[11] of p. 740. As Nicholas Hathway's boundary is mentioned in a deed dated 1642, and he was not included in the list able to bear arms in 1643, many have thought he either died before that or returned to England.

Some have thought there were two John Hathways, first cousins, and both grandsons of Nicholas, one living on the west side of the river and one on the east. To this argument we reply that Jr. and Sr. in the modern sense were not customary in the Colonial period; then John Sr. was simply older than John Jr. and may not have been related. However if there had been two John Hath(a)ways, then the one we now call John, Sr. would not everywhere have been referred to as John Hathway of Taunton; Arthur Hathaway's son, John, was John of Dartmouth and John who came in the Blessing was John of Barnstable and each is so identified.

An argument on the other side is that Thomas Coram was 25 when he came to Dighton in 1693 and John Hathaway would then have been about 64, an odd difference in ages for a partnership in general, but if the young man had the influence and the money, and the older man the knowledge and respect, this John may be the one who faced the lawsuit when Thomas Coram returned to England in 1703, leaving John Hathaway as his representative. As an outcome John Hathaway lost his lands and home in the 2d parish of Taunton (which became Dighton in 1712) and returned to the homestead on the east side of the river. We had an article written by Charles A. Hathaway, Jr. in Sept. 1945 which discusses the dwellings on the Street Farm and "The Old Man of Mystery."

37 Reference to John as "loving brother" to William Shepherd may be found in Pope's PIONEERS; at Court held at New Haven 5 Feb. 1666, Edward Preston appeared as attorney for John Hathway of Taunton, the administrator of estate of his brother-in-law, William Shepherd, deceased. A letter from G.F. Shepard, 109 Filbert St., Hamden, Conn., states that his granddaughter, Mehitable Shepard, settled in Newport, R.I.

Another reference The Shepherd Families of New England, New Haven, 1973, Vol. 3 pp. 326-9, is quoted in The American Genealogist, July, 1977, page 163, in #765 of The Ancestry of President Calvin Coolidge.

39 For Craighead affair: see Desc. Rev. Thomas & Margaret Craighead, 1658-1876; Philadelphia, 1876 (N.Y. State Library). Thomas, son of Rev. Robert Craighead, native of Scotland, rem. Ireland. Thomas educated in Scotland, physician; gave up medicine, studied divinity, removed to N.E. in 1715 with a William Homes who had m. Mr. Craighead's sister, Catharine. First public mention was by Cotton Mather "preaching at Freetown, and urges the people to do all in their power to have him settle among them." He appears to be a relative of Mr. Hathaway of that town. His efforts to settle there were unsuccessful, and in spring of 1723 he went to Jersies and 28 Jan. 1724 was member of New Castle Presbytery which included parts of Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Delaware "lately come from New England."

43 (Ref. OUR COUNTY AND ITS PEOPLE, Bristol County, MA 1890) John[2] died in the part of Taunton which became Dighton in 1712 and Berkley in 1735. P. 437, tradition that in King Philip's War all residents of Freetown fled to the defences of Taunton. In King William's War, Freetown militia organized into a company in June, 1686 and Aug. 27 a gun from John Hathway to John King was charged by Major Benjamin Church at 1.7.00. ibid, p. 440 from 1683 to 1747 Freetown militia remained one company, then divided into three: first Old or West Freetown; second, to what became Fall River; third to East Freetown. In the second, Jail Hathaway (p. 58) was com'd Captain July 1771 and discharged 19 Sept. 1775.

The field officers included
Ebenezer (p. 54), Lt. Col., com'd 174- and Joshua (p. 147), Major, 7 Feb. 1775; discharged in 1778. ibid. p. 442 in Spring of 1777 Col. John (p. 128) was commander at Little Compton in spring of 1777. ibid, p. 427

In dividing Freeman's purchase 13 whole lots and parts of 14th fell within what became Fall River; the 6th drawn by John Howland, remained in Howland, Brightman, and Hathaway families, intermingled by marriage, until most of it was sold off into house lots.

48 Jonathan[5] is 4th ch. of Capt. Abraham[4], not of Thomas[4] (Composition error) Hepsibah[5] signed by mark on Theophilus Clark's deed, 20 Sept. 1782, as "Hipzibah" and on Theophilus Clark, Jr's. application for pension, 13 Aug. 1832, he spelled her name "Hipsabah"

Mary[5] was not the one who marrried Pardon Daily of Warwick; his wife was dau. Jeremiah[1] q.v; Mary[5], Ephraim[4]'s dau. m. Berkley 2 Apr. 1747 Josiah Talbot.

Abraham[4] was appointed freeholder by the Court in 1740 when Morris Co., N.J. was organized. By 1752 Abraham Sr. and Jr., Benjamin Sr. and Jr., Jonathan, and Simeon were freeholders. Hathaway Inn mentioned in 1755.

50 Samuel[5] prob. Sam'll Hathaway whose farm was in Granville, MA 1782 (Spelman, 129)

Benjamin[4] was 3rd of first four to have earmarks recorded, p. 5 of Minute Book, 1740-1741. Next was Jonathan's son Capt. Abraham[4] (Abraham[3], John[2], Nicholas[1]); then on p. 6, Elleazer, formerly his father, Benjamin's, 1763; then Benoni's, 1766 and John, 1773. Note: Map on frontspiece of Some Early Records of Morris Co., N.J. 1740-99 published by Stryker-Rodda, 1975, is particularly helpful in studying this family. In 1740 there were 4 townships: Pequanock and Hanover formed in 1720 in Hunterdon County, Morris 25 Mar. 1740 and Roxbury 24 Dec. 1740. While the tradition is mentioned that Benjamin was Captain of a whaling ship, this seems most unlikely.

Benjamin[4] was found by Althea Courtet in May, 1979 in Vol. I of Special Deeds Hunterdon Co. Clerk's Office (these deeds were supposed lost in 1828 Courthouse fire), p. 30. "Indenture dated 13 Dec. 1727, John Lyon, Hanover, carpenter to Benjamin Hathaway, blacksmith of the same . . . 25 acres within the bounds of Honover near Wyippening Great Meadows . . . beginning at a post standing by the highway in Samuel Ford's line and bounded by Nathaniel Hubbel, Jacob Ford. Wit: Jos. Harriman and Daniel Gard, 1 Nov. 1730" (note that Morris Co. separated from Hunterdon 15 Mar. 1738/9.)

His older brother was often called Capt. Abraham, but the ship likely carried iron, and long voyages accounted for the scarcity of records of his children. Benjamin held tavern license from 1750-60, and in 1763 his widow Elizabeth had the license. The Benjamin, Jr. who held the tavern license in 1753-4 would probably be his nephew, for his son — usually called Lt. Benjamin — inherited the Iron Works. Abel[5] does not appear in these records at all; may have been "lost at sea" or died young. How else can we account for Philip having the tavern license from 1761-3? We have no clues at all as to indentity of the Jonas Hatheway who was of Hanover on the poll list May, 1776, delegate from Morris County to N.J. First Constitiutional Convention.

John and John, Jr. were listed as freeholders in Roxbury, N.J., 17 Jan. 1793. N.J. ctfs. for depreciation pay, Quartermaster General Dept., were issued 15 Mar. 1780 and interest from 1780 to 1787, #148 for John Hathaway, Private and #994 for John Hathaway, Jr. This John, Jr. is not son of John, Benjamin's son, but may have been the one who sold 70 acres to Ralph (See below).

Benjamin[4] has res. Morristown 40 years (James T.[8] Historical Notes, printed but not published, Press of J. T. Hathaway, 297 Crown St., New Haven, 1918, 51 pages) that his house, in which Benoni was born (1743) was still standing a few years ago on Flagler St. Col. Hathaway inherited the old homestead, and a farm now in the heart of Morristown; that Lewis[7] had pointed it out to him in 1846, unpainted, on Stage Road. Family tradition that Col. Benoni had spent large sums of money for shoes for barefoot soldiers, and quartered French officers in his home. Three generations of Hathaways born in that house. David and his wife died there within 3 weeks in 1807, and Col. Benoni raised their three little sons.

51 An indenture dated 2 Apr. 1773 . . . part of land devised to Gershom[5] by will of his father, Benjamin, deceased . . . was sworn to by a witness 27 Sept. 1786, rec. 14 Oct. 1786, land on Whatnung Rd., beginning at corner of Eleazer Hatheway's land.

Ezra Eberhardt, Jr., "Until further proof of his identity can be found, it remains highly probable that Gershom Hathaway[5] (1720-1777) had by his first wife, at least a son, John Hathaway[6] b. 1753 who lived until 1828 in Succasunna.")

The "old paper" telling of Robert's brother was found in Robert's attic and is undated from Boston Sunday Journal quoting letter dated Freetown, 16 May 1776. "My dear brother — When this letter reaches you Marion Williams will be Mistress Marion Hathaway, and I regret that you cannot be present to see her, who was our companion and your intended bride, become my wife. She is loyal to the king. It was a sad disappointment to her and to me that you became a rebel. The cause that you are fighting for is wrong, and had you listened to my advice, all would have been well.

"It would be well for you to repent your hasty action. Think it over and secure your pardon before it is too late.

"I shall render what services I can to His Majesty's troops and later I shall serve with him. Of course our wedding will be a disappointment to you. But your delusion cost you all.

"May God show you the right light and long live the King.

"Your affectionate brother,
Thomas Hathaway"

Note: Jonathan was in Freetown in 1790 census; left no will; it is assumed his widow went to Warren to live with Robert. She lived to be 98y.8m. so could well have informed her grandaughters of the romance. The account says Thomas and Marion went to England with some of the British troops.

Dau.[7] was with Benjamin in Scipio in 1810.

Isaac[6] in Allegany Co. NY in 1840, Buchanon Co. IA in 1850. Early records in Allegany seem to have no references to him there. In 1820 he is over 45 with a male and female 10 to 16, female under 10 and female over 45. He was included in the local militia in Morristown NJ about 1791.

Isaac[6] see History of Buchanan Co., Iowa, 1881, p. 281: "settled in territory now Washington Twp. about two miles east of Independence in Sept. 1845." First winter the family used a hut made mostly of poles, and he made some repairs. They went to Centre Point for corn. There were no settlers north of him in the county, nor west in the township. Alexander, being a lad of 12, kept the family in venison. Next spring he fenced 80 acres of land with rails split out the winter before by a man he brought with him for that purpose from IL. He had many teams, both horses and oxen, and did a large amount of breaking. Raised a little corn, and the next summer a fine crop of wheat, nearly 40 bushels per acre. He was born in NY in 1801, went to OH when quite young, then to Michigan, to Wisconsin, then to McHenry Co. IL. After 12 years, returned to Ohio and after a short time back returned to Iowa; five years later went to Cedar Co. IA.

Isaac[7] b. NY 1801; d. Cedar Co., IA 1872 (1881 History of Buchanan Co., Iowa) Had 5 ch., all living:

iii. Hulda m. John Hines, wealthy stock dealer, res. Cedar Co. IA
iv. Mary m. Wm. Paige, dry goods and grocer dealer, res. Mechanicsville, Cedar Co.IA
v. Hattie, only one born in IA; m. Mr. Schuyler; res. St. Louis MO. b. 1849

Note, this confuses the two Isaac's—father and son. Both were here, no doubt, and the elder Isaac here in 1850 census with wife Mary; by 1856 she had died. He was with Hester and her family, age 88, b. NJ, here 7 years. Hester had been here as had her children. Only Henry listed as born OH, the rest of Henry's children in IN. In 1850 Alexander was with his grandparents, and by 1856 with his cousin Mary Ann and the Brewer family. See p. 999.

Washington section goes on to tell of Alexander's remaining in Independence and his family, six boys and a girl. ibid, p. 270: Samuel Sherwood, b. Fairfield VT 18 Oct. 1820; came to IA from Janesville WI,m. 2 Feb. 1849 Hulda Hathaway, b. Warren Co., OH 18 Feb. 1822, dau. Henry, a prominent farmer and citizen of that county.

Obed[7] (Joseph, Lt. Benj.[5], Capt. Benjamin[4], Abraham[3], John[2], Nicholas[1]) b. 25 Jan. 1802; ref. Hist. of Shiawassee Co., MI 1880, p. 238, Middlebury: "In June 1837 pioneer family of six persons, Obed, wife and 4 ch. (note he had two males under five in 1830 census of Woodhull, Steuben Co. NY) in lumber wagon drawn by oxen . . . bargained with (Henry Leach) to mark a road for them through the woods to section 21 in next town north . . . no white man had preceded him into the territory" . . . he had to cut out road for team five miles. The family stayed in wagon for four weeks until he could build a cabin. They ran out of food and it took him six weeks to get food. No other settlers came, so he went back to Washtenaw County until spring. In Spring of 1838 the Slocums were on section 35, but he found his cabin had been broken into, all food gone, so for weeks the family lived on leeks and potatoes. He had been in Henrietta. Ontario Co. NY in 1820 with one male under 10 and two females under 26, but no land record found there. Obed buried at Middlebury Cem., near Ovid, Shiawassee Co. MI g.s. "Died Feb. 20 1863 aged 60 yrs 25 das; wife, Catherine H., d. Aug. 16, 1868, aged 66 yrs. 3 mos. 7 das." His homestead is still standing, owned by a local doctor.

Seth was listed in Arlington VT in 1810 census.

In 1889 they bought the Weatherspoon Homestead, located on the AuSable River midway between Jay and AuSable. They raised cows, sheep, horses, chickens, etc. He raced horses at Redford and Westport Fairs, driving the sulky himself. In the winter he took logging jobs, hiring 25-30 men to cut logs and float them down the West Branch of the AuSable River to the Pulp and Acid Plant in AuSable Forks. He made his own maple sugar, grew fruits and vegetables, cut river ice and stored for summer use. Fire destroyed the original house in 1900, and he and his brother built the present Homestead with ten rooms and large porches; land was over 125 acres. He died of a heart attack and left his widow with ten ch. She found time to serve as a midwife, delivered over 75 babies, many of whom were her own grandchildren; seldom was a doctor called in. # My Sincere Wish

By Clara Hathaway

I would like to go back o'er life's pathway
And trace every footstep I've trod,
And remove the rough spots where I stumbled,
Erase every footprint and clod.

I would like to go back o'er life's journey
And call back each harsh word I've said,
Recall every wrong deed or action
Causing sorrow, or tears to be shed.

I would add many words left unspoken
And retract many words idly said,
And heal every heart bruised or broken
By replacing kind words in their stead.

Then when at the end of life's journey
I am asked my past story to tell,
There'd be no rough spots on my pathway,
No trace where I stumbled or fell.

Published in memory of our mother, Mrs. Clara Hathaway, who passed away Jan. 8, 1975.

—Wilma Wright, Beryl Hall and Jeanne Meacham.

Albert Josiah[8] d. 1 July . . . at Mapleton IA where he returned the second time about four years ago and built a fine roller mill of 76 barrels. Early settler and one of oldest millers. Came west from Homer NY with his father in 1855 intending to build a mill, but he joined a party going west to Pike's Peak. Two years later he bought a mill site, began getting timber to enclose both a saw and grist mill. The saw mill was finished in 1864 and the grist mill began operations 8 Jan. 1866. He was most hospitable, entertaining customers like a hotel, but charging only for milling. Gave supper, lodging, and breakfast as they waited their turns. He was also postmaster at Castana. In later years went to FL for three years and spent six years in CA.

Otsego Journal, 11 Aug. 1886 published a letter from William Fayel who was born 1821 and moved from the Comstock district on West Hill with his family in 1831. Quoting in part " . . . The road up the mountain from South New Berlin . . . at the top was the residence of Dr. Hathaway. Just beyond the road forked . . . the right hand . . . led past Silas Hathaway's . . . among old school mates (was) Bill Hathaway." Thus it appears that the Bill remembered by William Fayel, and son of Silas B., is the William D. born near Cooperstown NY, who left home when he was nine, and is on page 1096. For each name, to have the correct generation from Nicholas, add 8 to the superscript number. Silas B.[8] bought more in 1835 (55/104) and sold with his wife Nancy in 1837 (59/360); in 1841 to his brother, William G., and in 1843 (72/202) William G. sold to their mother Mary.

Sally[8]'s descendant, C. Ernest Anderson, b. Nov. 1895, d. June, 1976; long member of HFA. He will be remembered not only for his genealogical help to many but also for the years of subscriptions to New Mexico Magazine shared with us. It was through his correspondence and research that we identified William Darius of p. 1096 as son of Silas B. He apparently left home shortly after his young uncle, Orville, died and possibly as a result of its impression on him. He was given the middle initial "D" to distinguish him from the uncle ten years older, William G.

Add to p. 1097 George[3] d. Jan. 1978; Morley James[4] d. 9 Mar 1978; add [8] to each superscript number (Morley a 12th generation from Nicholas).

364 Samuel L.[9] pet'n. for adm. by Sarah R., Widow, dated 25 May 1874 lists minor, J. Maude[10] under age 14. In 1860 William, 22; Edna, 17, and Elizabeth, 14, were near Samuel and Sarah at Sidney, Otsego Co. NY.

Lewis A. b. c1834 and Lewis A. of p. 1184 may be the same individual, in spite of the 15-year disparity in age. Lewis A. bought and sold many tracts of land in Otsego Co. and was a resident of Norwich, Chenango Co. NY in 1868 when he bought the tavern house, yards, gardens, grounds, barn and other buildings in Gilbertville. He and his wife, Atalanta, of New Lisbon sold land in Garrattsville 5 Dec. 1866. He was of New Berlin, Chenango Co. when he bought in 1865, and of Unadilla when with wife Atalanta he sold in 1855. Was Atalanta the A. N. Beals of Bainbridge whom he married in Morris, NY 7 Mar. 1854? Who was Marie, b. NY in 1830, with him at Oneonta in 1880? More records must be found to solve his identity!

John, Jr. was the only Hathaway in Steuben County 1850 census to have land, then valued at $4000, with 80 acres improved; 18 unimproved; 4 horses, 5 milk cows, 75 sheep, 6 pigs; $500 stock; 360 bushel of wheat produced during the year, 25 tons hay, 700 lbs. butter. On 6 Dec. 1852 he sold the farm (65/514) and set out for Michigan. They apparently were on a boat which sank on Lake Erie and all on board were drowned. We have new data on Orland which shows his mother was Maria Havens:

Frederick William[8] Hatheway managed the business begun by his father and was known as the "Steamboat King." He was financier and business mgr. of the works.

Charles Harrison[8] was best loved, captained the flagship, trained the crews, knew the joys and sorrows and needs of everyone on the St. John River. The Union Line of Steamships enjoyed practically a monopoly of the river traffic for more than four decades from the early 1840's to 1884 and expanded to include Nova Scotia and Maine. The first flagship was the St. John but it was the Forest Queen that carried the Prince of Wales to Fredericton in 1860 when Mrs. Captain Hathaway wore "burgundy satin, real lace and pearls." The Bessie Hatheway listed in St. John registry in 1865 was named for her. He was described as "the true type of bluff, hearty river captain . . . a most popular captain." He died at his home, "Hillside" in Lancaster; she lived to bring up the children of her eldest son and died at his home "Berry Hill" near Fredericton. Children were born in the Town of Portland, now part of St. John, N.B.

500 Frederick William[9] was named for his uncle and grew up in a silk-hatted, lavender-gloved generation. He travelled in Europe, studied art in Paris, wintered and painted in the West Indies, became the first Customs Officer of the Port of Digby, Nova Scotia. There he met and married Christine Grace, dau.

Capt. Samuel Helms and Maria (Whitman) Bogart. Wharves and vessels in port hung out flags and bunting for the very popular wedding. The bride's beautiful lace veil became a family heirloom, later worn by her daughter, Muriel, her granddaughter, Christina, and the bride of her youngest son, Leslie. Frederick William later opened a hardware and ships' chandler business in Granville Ferry, a suburb of Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia. The young couple lived in a fine old Annapolis home, now known as the Judge Savary House where all their children were born. Christina inherited a considerable fourtune while she expected her eighth child, and Frederick William planned to retire and find a country home. Together they selected Berry Hill about five miles above Fredericton on the St. John River, but Christina died in childbirth and the baby lived only a few months. In 1901 he moved to Berry Hill with his surviving children and widowed mother

ARTHUR HATHAWAY

749 Arthur[1] called Hidaway in one record, Marshfield or Plymouth, MA

751 Dan not yet found, but Dr. Daniel Hathaway is listed in OUR COUNTRY AND ITS PEOPLE—Bristol, County, MA 1890, p.681, early physician in Dartmouth, and presumably the same who d. 1772. Note that Daniel on page 149 had married in Dartmouth, Ruth Howland then being of Sandwich, and may be the one who served in the Revolution 3 months and 22 days. Capt. Daniel who died in Newport ae. 85 noticed in Columbian Centinel 24 Apr. 1811 was another early Daniel. It is certainly possible that the Dan mentioned in Arthur's will is a brother or nephew 752 Richard Warren, the Pilgrim, was not son of Christopher and Alice. Cr. Claude W. Barlow, now deceased, in 1971 working on the Five Generation Series of Mayflower Descendants, wrote that the date of birth of Christopher Warren's son, and especially the date of his marriage in England, makes it impossible for him to be the 1620 Pilgrim. That the story was invented more than 100 years ago, and was soon afterwards disproved, but once in print seems almost impossible to kill.

Susanna, see page 1207

Hannah[3]'s husband, George Cadman was son of William and Elizabeth Cadman (Ref. Nebraska and Midwest Genealogical Record, p.233; copy in N.Y. Historical Society Library)

Mary[3] m. Samuel Hammond. A descendant, former member HFA, Dorothy Stillwell of Woodstock, VT, Historian of VT MDS

753 John[3] claimed 20 acres by his father's will (Book 1, p.11 North Purchase Lands of Dartmouth, deeds abstracted by Carol Thompson) Same ref. land by deed from Benj. Etten dated 29 Oct. 1685. Stephen Peckham claimed 10 acres by deed from John Hathaway dated 22 Dec. 1691, part of 20 that John Hathaway claims. He claimed 380 acres on his father's right. Bk 1 p.22, John Hathaway claims meadows of 14 acres by virtue of his father's will; undivided half share throughout. Thomas Hathaway claimed land from others, not his father's will. Bk 1 p.219 Thomas Hadaway of Dartmouth bought of Jacob Stoder of Hingham, lands, orchards, meadows, etc. in Dartmouth . . . 8 Dec. 1708.

Simon's being a member of the wedding party is one reason for believing it is Arthur's daughter, Joanna, and not John's that m. Daniel Bowerman. the families remained close for generations.

Amos Otis and the Wm. Spooner Memorial both say that Daniel Bowerman, son of Benjamin and Martha (Spooner) Bowerman and Joanna Hathaway, dau. of Simeon, had a son Barnabas Bowerman, etc. We have found no Simeon early enough, and believe this is an example of an error appearing in print and being copied. Her parents were deceased at the time of her marriage, and her older brother would naturally have taken their father's place in that ceremony. Caroline Wing (Jennings) Crapo Thompson, member of HFA since 1966, has researched this line.

Burton[5] also had a son James[6] as evidenced by a deed (Tyrrell Co., N.C. 16/326) an indenture dated 1 Dec. 1809 between William Hathaway and James the son of Burton, both of Tyrrell Co., N.C. when James pd William $400 for land on the west side of Scuppernong River, beginning at the river, in the middle of the swamp, the line between William Hathaway and Woolsey Hathaway to the head of a branch dividing Burton and William Hathaway's land . . . with every improvement . . . messuage and tenement . . . court Oct. 1829; rec. 21 Jan. 1820? (1830)

During the Revolution Burton was captured as a prisoner of war. Dr. Thomas C. Parramore mentions him in "Cradle of the Colony". He was master of the ship Hiram, 50-ton schooner, owned by Webb Littlejohn Company of Edenton. Danske Dandridge's "American Prisoners of the Revolution" p.466, Burton & Woolsey

The 1800 census of Chowan County, N.C. on page 115 lists a James, one of three males between 26 and 45 with another 16 to 26, two 10-16 and two under 10. The females were one under 10; two 16-26; three free persons and no slaves. It is possible he is James son of Woolsey on page 758, or it may be this son of Burton, born after his grandmother's death, but early enough to be of age for the indenture above. Woolsey[6] is in Tyrrell Co. with son William and possibly a niece. We know from the deeds his home was near the junction of Tyrrell and Washington Counties

James[6] (Burton[5] James[4] John[3] Arthur[2] Arthur[1])b. Edenton, N.C. is believed, but not proven to be, the James who m. Emily Berry and later Elizabeth Parker, but no marriage bonds have been found, nor other primary records. Two of Burton's brothers had sons James, and all may have been close in age. James had a male over 16 in the 1790 census, and in his marriage bond on 1796 was called senior. Woolsey's son James birth was entered in his Bible. Burton's son James named in deed. All three are grandsons of James and Agnes. Which one filed marriage bond 26 Aug. 1830 to Mary Tweddy or 26 Oct. 1837 to Sarah Eliott, or which one was in Perquimans Co., N.C. in 1830 is not certain, but it is certain that James and Emily Berry had Emily Ann and James W. and that James later married Elizabeth Parker and had Sallie, Florence and Fred P.:

Zephaniah, see page 903 for census data, noting that daughters were listed as younger in 1782, they are correct in 1800 census. To have had three males under 16 in 1774, there would have to be one more son, and a possible son would be John, see page 1014. To have had six children at the time of Quaker Relief during the Siege of Boston, it is possible that older sons had left and younger ones born

Ezra[6] d. 14 July 1865 at 6 Park St., New Bedford ae. 81, labourer. Death record apparently incorrect in calling his mother Nancy! It was amended Aug. 17 and June 7, 1933 to have Nancy crossed out and Sarah written in as his mother. A deed dated 18 Aug. 1809 from Ezra Hathaway of New Bedford and wife Abigail, dau. of late John Wanton of Newport showing she gave up her dower right of Abigail, widow of John, to George Wanton, brother of John and heir-at-law with him to property of their father, James. Apparently Ezra and Abigail separated, and the extras with Ezra may be sons, stepsons, or just hired hands.

In 1850 census, Mary, widow of James was at 64 Pleasant St. with her youngest son, Richard W., but in 1852 she moved to the first house west of Ezra's. See p. 1004. No proof found, but there may be a relationship. No Ezra is listed in the New Bedford Directory until 1839 when one boarded with Benjamin King in No. 3 school district; in 1841 he was laborer with house at 63 Smith and in 1845 laborer with house north of Oak Grove Cem., similarly in 1849 and 1852, but in 1856 he is stone cutter. He appears to be the Ezra who m. int. 9 Dec. 1839 Nancy Stiles of Fairhaven; see page 1151. In 1850 they have one dau. Ann E. If dau. James and Phebe Peckham, widow, she d. Dartmouth 25 Feb. 1873 ae. 73

Because of "Esquire" in notice of Lydia Ann's marriage, it appears these are not identical. In the 1845 New Bedford directory is listed an Abigail, formerly wife of Ezra, in house first north of J.P.West's.

907 John[1] Hadaway b. 1617[1] prob. England, immigrated to New England 13 July 1635 or shortly thereafter[2]. He settled in Barnstable on Cape Cod. He m. 1) 1 July 1656 Hannah Hallett[3]. They had 4 ch.[4] She d. early; he m. 2) 1 May 1672 Elizabeth Coleman[5]. John and Elizabeth had 4 ch.[6]

John[1] was a soldier in the Narraganset Campaign (Dec. 1675-Jan. 1676) of King Philip's War. He served in the Second Company of the Plymouth Regiment under Capt. John Gorham of Barnstable[7]. He was a "soldier grantee" of 40 acres of land in Narraganset Twp. No. 7, now Gorham, Maine, on 6 June 1733. As John[1] d. Yarmouth, MA 1697[9] some have thought the "John Hathway" of Barnstable listed by Bodge may be John[2]. More evidence needed

To data on pages 907 and 908 of second generation, Capt. Hadaway adds that Hannah[2] d. after 3 Aug. 1689; that Gideon d. after 1753; the youngest two being daughters and one named Sarah.

Thomas[2] (John[1]) b. Yarmouth, and m. Sarah Baker there 15 Dec.1698[10] and Sarah Marchant on 19 May 1714, but her ch. births rec. Barnstable[11]. Capt. Hadaway adds that in the 3d generation Elizabeth d. 1774; m. 10 Dec. 1739 Robert Bradford; James 1733; Hannah 1741; and Thomas before 25 Dec. 1784

James[3] (Thomas[2] John[1]) b. Yarmouth 24 Dec. 1700[10]; d. 1733; m. Barnstable[12] 8 Oct. 1730 Bethia Lumbard. Two ch.[13] He was in whaling business[14]. Bethia m. 2) James Lewis 3d on 20 Apr. 1742[15].

James[4] (James[3] Thomas[2] John[1]) b. Barnstable 13 Nov. 1733[13]; his death at age 95 would have been about 1828[14]. He m. Barnstable 9 Dec. 1756 Mary Lumbard[16]. They had 4 ch.[14] He m. 2) Mary (Phinney) Phinney, dau. Jabez and widow of Eli.[17] More evidence is needed as to the children. Using age at death for both Benjamin and Lewis the estimated year of birth would be 1764 and 1771 which would leave John to be born after June 1, 1774; however, if John were the John Hatheway who died 19 Jan. 1847 ae. 84 he would be the oldest.

Lewis[5] (James[4] James[3] Thomas[2] John[1]) b. c1774; perhaps d. New Bedford 20 Aug. 1851; res. Barnstable 1820; not father of children shown on page 909, but no further data available on him or them. Lewis m. Deborah Phinney in Barnstable c1800[18] Lewis and Deborah had 6 ch. and Mrs. Deborah Phinney Hadaway d. 10 Oct. 1817[19]

907 Compiler's additional notes on Hadaways of Barnstables: That John of Barnstable was Narragansett Grantee is confirmed in Gorham, Maine p.223. It is possible this is John[2] or John[3] and the historian in Maine would not have been aware of age or pedigree.

Note that Sarah[2] may be the Sarah Haddeway who m. 11 Oct. 1710 John Page. Her sister may be Martha of Falmouth whose marriage was recorded at Chilmark 13 June 1717 to Joseph Fuller

NEHGR 35/383-384 is in apparent response to several repetitions of the error in Savage's Dictionary confusing John Hadaway of Barnstable with John Hathaway of Taunton. NEHGR 14/301 indicates "Jo.Hathoway 18" as passenger in BLESSING. In 1635 John of Taunton would have been a boy of 6 still with his father, Nicholas, in England

Mayflower Descendants 19/44 is will of Edmund Hawes which includes "John Hathaway of yarmouth thirty Shillings wich he oweth to me"

iii. John 3 July 1766
iv. Hannah 28 Oct. 1768

Then it lists children of Benjamin Hadaway and Polly his wife:

908 Frederick b. 14 June 1771 is in Rutland, VT census of 1810 with no female of right age to be his wife, so probably his first wife had died and he had not yet married Thankful D. who was buried in Poultney, VT 27 Apr. 1857 ae. 90. His household consisted of two males b. 1794-1800 and two 1800-1810; one female 1784-94; one 1794-1800 and three 1800-1810. Note that Lott is the only one yet identified, and Granville, NY records should be searched.

909 Lott[5] in 1860 census had wife Maria and in 1870 Martha b. VT 1809. Susan Ann was teacher, her sister Hulda b. c1825-7 and brother, Franklin b. 1832. More research needed in Moriah, Essex Co.,NY

Data on "Carpenter Ben" and Hannah, mostly from Otis, does not agree with records found by Richard B. Hadaway, e.g.:

Hannah, dau. James, m. 27 Aug. 1797 John Lock, not her father's cousin, Benjamin the housewright. The Hannah who sued her brother, carpenter Ben, married Captain Oliver Appleton, not Capt. Thomas Appleton. Hannah and Oliver Appleton had at least one son, Thomas Hadaway Appleton who died in Boston 18 Jan. 1814.

Carpenter Ben's wife was Polly . . . and their 11 children are listed above. Of these Hannah m. Silvanus Simmons of Barnstable 3 Nov. 1819. Ref. Mayflower Descendant 19/82

William Hathaway of Virginia

Virkus Compendium of American Genealogy 5/331 gives Rowland Haddaway's birth 1607, death 1667. He then is the elder of the Hathaways who emigrated and possibly is the father of William b. 1636, and John of Baltimore whose will was probated 30 Aug. 1692. Some support for this hypothesis is found in the Order Books of Lancaster Co., VA where William's surname was spelled Haddaway for the years 1660, 1662, 1664, and 1665. In later years it was Hathaway.

Fleet Virginia Colonial Abstracts 1/110 records the following sworn statement made by Rowland Haddaway:

p.363 "Rowland Haddaway aged 45 years or thereabouts sworne x x saieth that about nine years since going in company with Thomas Gaskins Richard Budd Abraham Moone and John Dennys our desire was to take up land in fleets bay and we went into Corotoman Creek where we looked upon land and took up some afterwards going into a creek where Hugh Brent now liveth we gave it the name of Haddaways Creek and I this depont did take up the land that Hugh Brent now lives upon there being three Indian Cabbins upon the sd land going over a run above the sd Hugh Brents house we coming upon the land going upon the sd run Abraham Moone asked Thomas Gaskins whether he liked the sd land or would have any of the same the sd Gaskins answered no for he thought it would drowne the sd Moone answered if you wil not I wil have it myselfe the sd Moone likewise took a book out of his pocket and did set down the bounds of the sd land and further saith not 25 Jan 1659"

Rowland Haddaway moved from Lancaster Co., VA to Baltimore Co., MD about 1662 (Maryland Archives 41/592) "Rowland Haddoway did by bill beareing date the 30th day of Aprill 1661, become bound . . . of Eighteene hundred . . . sweete Sented tobacco in Cask . . .

A further evidence of the connection between the descendants of William Hathaway of Virginia and the Baltimore Hathaways is found in Molly Marshall's Brief History of the Hathaway Family. Her source was family tradition handed down through her stepfather, Eppa T. (p.919) and wrote for her stepsister Ora Hathaway that the Hathaways owned a large tract of land in Baltimore, MD

Rowland Haddaway's will, Maryland Calender of Wills, Baldwin 1/45 Oct. 6,1667. To son Peter, land on Chaptank Ck., Talbot Co. To son, George, 150 a on Bare Ck. Balto.Co. Wife Ursula, residuary legatee: sd wife to have care of George, son of testator, and her dau., Margaret. Test. Antony Meal, Richard Jones 1/321

Until more evidence is found it is not completely proved, but certainly possible that Rowland above is not only father of William, but also of John Hathaway who appears frequently in volumes of Maryland Historical Society: 1/103 the "Cryer", had custody of the key of the court house; 1/112; 19/361, Aha at a venture, 200 acres Sur. the 7th May 1687 for John Hathaway Lying on the north side of bush river . . .; 25/325 place names of Baltimore and Harford Counties "Ah Ha Branch or Creek" first mentioned in description of land called "Hathaway Trust" laid out for John Hathaway 28 Mar. 1685, and again "Ah Ha the Cow Pasture" on 7 May 1687. In 20/25 200 acres which John Hathaway bequeathed by will to George Smith.

Other children of Rowland's may be Peter P., Rowland, Jr., Thomas and George, some of the lineage: Peter P. b. 1652; m. Sarah Bridges. Ref. MD Arch. 6/91; MD Calendar of Wills, Baldwin 6/242. MD Militia 1740-1748

It is possible that the nine Hadaway households in 1790 census of Talbot Co., MD are from this branch MD Hist. Soc. 35/22: Hathaway (shipwright) builds "Fourth of July" at shipyard on Eastern Shore of Maryland, 1816.

Mrs. Clerissa Tatterson abstracted the early references and presented the above outline. She and others sent the following.

Ibid 24/345, 1929, shows contract 13 Feb. 1664-5 to sell 300 acres on Humphreys Creek. Ibid 33/179 bond 9 Feb. 1684, 3200 pounds tobacco as security by Michael Judd, shipwright, and two other bonds witnessed by John Hathway. Ibid 20/193 Hathaway's trust 150 acres then in possession of Mark Rible. To 20/25 above Ms. Amy Chase Loftin adds: Gunpowder hundred. 1668, poss[r] Jno. Carwell . . . "Lttle marlye, 200 acres Sur. the 27 Sept. 1684 for Miles Judd who sold to John Hathaway who bequeathed same by will to Geo. Smith. She dated the 21/193 28 Mar. 1685, and adds "now in possession of John Webster and William Howard." Ibid 25 of 1930 place names of Baltimore and Harford Counties "Ah Ha Branch or Creek" first mentioned in description of land called

"Hathaway Trust" laid out for John Hathaway, 28 Mar. 1685. Ah Ha Creek is mentioned again in the certificate of survey of the land called by the curious name of "Ah Ha the Cow Pasture" laid out for the said Hathaway on 7 May 1687.

911 Thomas[4]'s Revolutionary War record comprises nine sheets. He enrolled in Va. 13th under Capt. Van Hook, Col. Wm. Russell for duration of the war. Later muster rolls show him sick in hospital Oct. 1777, sick Bethlehem, Mar. 1778; on roll dated Valley Forge Apr. 1778, and another term of enlistment for three years. 7 sheets for 13th and one for 9th under Capt. Springer. Apr. and May 1779 in Regiment commanded by Col. John Gibson. Fort Pitt, 3 years: remarks "Com/d Phil/d"

Mary[4] was not one who married Joseph Hampton, see page 912. Land deed 19 Nov. 1778 from William to Lawson required William's children to relinquish their rights; it was signed by 5 men (John Hathaway and wife Sarah; James Hathaway and wife Joanna, Thomas Hathaway and wife Elizabeth; Isaac Curell and wife Dolly and Zachariah Linton and wife Mary) and recorded Lancaster Co., VA. This deed also states that Sarah, William's widow, was living in Fauquier Co., VA at that time. This shows that William[4] was not living in 1778, hence could not be the one who married Molly Currell. More research needed to identify that William. This data came from Mrs. Louise Salmon who wrote that the family Bible was destroyed in a small hotel fire in Texas, but a copy made from it showed births for both Mary and Zachariah Linton as 10 Aug. 1748; their marriage June 1772; and her death 9 May 1804 and his 24 June 1828. Mrs. Salmon was a member of HFA and descends from Mary; her husband, Dr. David Salmon of Los Altos CA descends from Betsey[5] of page 46.

John Hathaway

new John B. Hathaway b. Upper Canada 23 Mar. 1804; d. 1875; m. Ancaster, Ontario 1825 Elizabeth Green, b. 15 Jan. 1809; d. 18 June 1894, Lynden, Ont. bur. Millgrove Cem. She gave data on the family, presumably learned from Eleazer, to her grandson, Charles Bertram Hathaway; it was filed with HFA by Charles' granddaughter, Carole Ann Robinson. She would be happy to hear from anyone interested in what she has; her address 15 Victoria Street South, Goderich, Ont. N7A 3H2.

Eleazer b. 22 Feb. 1782 was very young when his father and perhaps his mother finally reached Niagara. Hostile Indians had stolen their stock and many of the humans in the company. He grew to manhood at Bullock's Corners, became a millwright. He made a water wheel for a mill at Webster's Falls nearby. It may be the mill later called Clarks mill, perhaps the one made of water oak still sturdy and fit to run when Charles wrote the story of his great-grandfather.

Eleazer's story begins with his grandfather, a Capt. Hathaway lost at sea in about 1760, his oldest son, William, younger sons, daughter and widow not named. Capt. Hathaway was English, made his home in Boston, and usually sailed to India and stopped at many foreign ports before he came home again. Gone from one to three years, he stayed home for several months before sailing again. Finally, urged by his wife's wishes he sold two sailing ships which were under other captains, and set out on one more trip. Several months later a skipper called on her and told her that in mid-ocean he sighted a ship he believed to be Capt. Hathaway's ablaze from stem to stern. He lay to for some time, but found no boats nor rafts. Pirates were numerous, and many thought his ship was captured, the crew killed, the ship looted, then fired. No more was heard from him, the crew, or the ship.

Capt. Hathaway kept all his spare money and papers in a huge iron-bound trunk. No one had access to it except himself and his wife and she never opened it unless of necessity to get extra money if he was away longer than he had expected.

When William became 21 his mother handed him the key. The Captain was then lost over seven years. No will was found, but the deeds to property included land in New Amsterdam and other places. His mother had not understood that taxes must be paid; she had not "meddled with anything, it was just as the captain had left it . . . and all right". William found that property in and near New York City had been bought by a Dutch merchant as soon as it reverted to the Crown for taxes. Some lands and properties in other places were saved by paying back taxes, but the best were lost through his mother's ignorance of tax laws.

One of the sons married, and Eleazer was his son. When the revolution began, this part of the family remained loyal to the British, and so were among those asked to leave, their property going to relatives who had sided with Washington. They could take only what could be pulled with a yoke of oxen or driven on the hoof. They arrived near Hamilton about the same time as Robert Lord, whose farm was near the King and James Streets intersection.

John B.[4] (Elezar[3] ?William[2] Capt.[1]) cleared land in the forest of Dundas, Wentworth Co., Ontario. One branch of the family believed he had an older brother, Elizar (sic) who was an officer in the American army, no proof yet found, and he and his son, Warren, were killed in the War of 1812, and a very beautiful sister, Helen, who once owned land in Chicago, and lost it by signing some papers. All traditions serve as clues only until proofs are found.

John B.[4] and Elizabeth Green had 12 ch.:

Daniel[6] (Peter[5] John B.[4] Elezar[3] ?William[2] Capt.[1]) b. Lynden, Ont. c1851; d. prob. Lansing, Michigan (with sister Cynthia) of nosebleed. He worked in the mill at Burford until about 1871, then went to Oxely (Colechester) and to Canning where he m. Maggie Luxford whose brother John operated the store there next to the mill; well-dressed; wore a silk hat. His father bought mills for the sons matching the $500 each had earned. The flour and saw mills were called Union Mills of Woodbury. The double house built for the new families was called "Hathaway's Folly" by others, possibly because of sparseness of population. The house was built of chestnut lumber cut on their property. William Luxford, father to both wives, would visit and fish for pike in the large mill pond there. He also hunted with his own shotguns he had brought with him from England. Trouble began between the brothers, and Sam wanted to leave, but at first Dan refused to sell, and eventually Sam left with only a horse and buggy to represent his $1,000 investment. Dan apparently had some form of mental disease, and went to Erie Pennsylvania to stay with his Blasdell uncle. Maggie learned he was squandering money, and followed with the boys, Fred and John. Dau. Jenny-May stayed with her mother's other sister, Mrs. George Hoffman in Paris, Ont. and joined her parents later in Michigan Jenny-May m. Will Nye who d. Toronto; she had three daus. Sylvia, Marguerite and Gladys. John[7] eventually went to Detroit and became purchasing agent for Packard Motor Co; his wife died in childbirth; his daughter Jacqueline married in Detroit area.

Fred W.[7] d. Port Huron 15 Dec. 1969, b. 29 Oct. 1881; m. 1 Jan. 1907 Nellie Munro, dau. James and Agnes (Jackson) Munro, His son George Wilmot[8] b. 26 Apr. 1909 in City of Port Huron, MI; ins. agt. m. 19 Sept. 1940 Wilma Villerot Lightbody, dau. Wm. & Edith (Worden) Villerot

Samuel Bryden[6] (Peter[5] John B.[4] Elezar[3] ?William[2] Capt.[1]) b. Lynden, Ont. 7 June 1855. His middle name was for a Blasdell who married a Bryden. In 1930 he told his grandson about going to farm at Windham Centre and living in log cabin until house was built . . helping make cement . . . wearing stockings over shoes to keep feet warm in winter, going to school only to read, write and cipher; mischief, often truant, caned by teacher. Family couldn't afford butter, used lard or bacon fat on sandwiches, sometimes filled with buds of beach trees. Coffee made of roasted peas or natural herbs. He fired boiler at Snowball's Wagon Factory, stoked fires. Remembered going to Burford about 1870, helped build dam, mill race, barn and house there, and probably learned miller's trade. First job away from home at Bethany, near present Port Perry; he then 13, could operate a one or two stone mill be himself. Went by train and stayed three months. Then worked at Leamington for three years, for his $500 toward the mills. Tried tintype sales with a friend. In 1880 he m. at Paris, George Hoffman's home, Rachel Luxford, honeymoon at Brantford, Canesville and Burford, then lived in their side of Woodbury house for three years, and then in a rented house. Sam remembered the private dances at the double house with orchestra seated in one of bay windows; guests came from as far away as Paris; a collection paid for the orchestra; children stayed up all night, and George played tambourine.

The last straw at the double house was when Dan threw a weight from the scale at Sam only 10-12 feet away and hit him on the head. Sam went next to Rockton to work for uncle Ben Blasdell at the mill there, and when they left Rachel received a silver pitcher and goblet for her services as choir leader and organist. When his father died Sam went back to run his mill, and to Lynden, Woods Mill for uncle Louis Blasdell and Rachel kept boarders, then O'Neil's mill at Paris, and next Whitlaw & Baird, a 300 barrel mill begun 1890 where he stayed 7-8 years and won the gold medal at the World Fair for the best flour. It burned in 1897, and he went to Brantford where he sold the first street car horse; then to Ridgeway where he worked in Cutler's Mill and George in his store. He stayed five years, changed mill from stone to new roller process. Then Leamington, Blenheim, Wallaceburg, back to Ridgeway, then to St. Mary's where he managed Rice's Mill. After 7 years it failed, and he went to Kitchener where George was working, and purchased a double home and Sam worked at a shoe factory. At New Hamburg Sam and Rachel operated a Notions Shop and children came to hear her stories as well as buy the penny candy and gum. His son:

George Blasdell[7] b. Woodbury, Ont. 29 Jan. 1881, remembered going to school at Forces Corner, two miles away; the dances, that his father was first to make

Cream of Wheat in Canada, at Paris, then called Wheat Germ. That he also operated a pool and billiard hall, but too much credit on the books, so moved to Ridgeway. When Rachel was ill, George stayed home to care for her. He applied for work at the bank, but his father objected, so next he went to learn business at a knitting mill, first in shipping room, then pressing, but one day the press blew up and he was blown under the table by the concussion. 12 hour day for $3 per week. Then began retail business at Cutler's where he worked 3 years, then Albany for Metropolitan Life; after 1½ years returned to Ridgeway, first in office, then general store, then a year at Conrad Motor which failed. Then buyer for 3 years, played in 44th Bn. band, double B-flat bass. Next shirt companies, the last of which owed him $9500 in uncollected commissions. When his partner at New Hamburg died, he succeeded at "George B. Hathaway, Merchant to the People" until 1929 crash. He moved to Newmarket in 1952 and died there in 1960 ae. 80, bur. Preston, Ont. Cem. Rolena in Convalescent hospital after falling and breaking her hip. George and Rolena Roos had 2 ch.:

He also told that historians believed that early Warwickshire Hathaways came across from the adjoining county of Gloucestershire. He believed that most of the Hathaways in the Midland Counties of England had a common ancestor in "Gwyllyn de Minsterworth". Data on this branch from his son:

Sir Thomas Winnington wrote 5 May 1870 "the name Hathway leads me to conjecture that Shakespeare may have visited Rock and become directly or indirectly connected with these raids on Sir Thomas Lucy's deer."

John Cuthbert was rector of Rock from 1560 to 1565 when he died and was buried 11 Mar. at Rock. He and Margery Hathway were married 11 June 1561. John Hathway married Isobel Fidoe in 1580. Data from registers of Rock.

Wellington[2] may be the L.W.Hathaway buried near Excelsior and the "Will" that Helen Bolle asked about in 1969. She interviewed a Mr. Wanick, whose farm includes the little cemetery, and he said Will worked for his father and grandfather. That Will was a great reader and loved to argue about politics. Helen's mother had lived in that area, but she does not remember the Hathaways mentioned. She checked the deeds and found the earliest Hathaway grantee was (p.188, land agent) John L., 7 Dec. 1858, and Alson A. 9 Nov. 1858, followed by L. F. July 19, 1862, May 11, 1864, 2 Dec. 1858, 2 Dec. 1864, and a grantee deed for L. F. et als 26 Jan. 1865; the final one (S/268) may give clues to this family.

955-6 Alonzo[2] bur. in Red Brick School Cemetery; Wanton and Emily in Pulaski Cemetery; Alonzo d. ae. 39 y. 10 m 12 d; Henry A., son of A.M. and S. died 3 days earlier, 28 Jan. 1867. Emily A., wife of A. d. 27 May 1850 ae. 22 y 29 d, and is buried in Pulaski Cem. as was his father, Wanton

To account for Wanton's three sons born before 1820 census, we must consider Allen b. Vt. 1811-2 (see page 1124) Hiram J. and Nathaniel R. Because Allen later moved to Ingham Co. MI where William G. (page 408) is buried and is mentioned in that family. Allen was of Jacksonburgh when he bought land in Ingham Co. 27 Sept.1836; perhaps the A. Hathaway who witnessed a land deed 12 Sept. 1838, then of Spring Arbor. Allen d. Ingham Co., MI 2 Jan. 1883; g.s. Greenwood Cem., Aurelius Twp.; he m. 1) Hannah, b. N.Y. 19 Apr. 1822; d. 17 Aug. 1850; m. 13 July 1856 Catharine P. Rappleye, both of Vevay.

v. Mary E. b. May 1861; m. 25 Ma. (sic) 1883 Edmund A. Dubois, b. Jackson Co. MI 1859; Mary E. Frost d. 27 Aug. 1940 ae. 77, bur. in Allen's lot. Greenwood Cem., Aurelius
vi. Ada S. b. 19 Feb. 1869; unm. 1900 census; m. 1) 19 Sept. 1905 Ernest Johnson, son Levi and Anne E. (Huse/Hulse) his 2d marr.

Hiram J. and Nathaniel R. bought land in Jackson Co., MI 14 Oct. 1843 (note that Hiram J. of page 186 would have been too young, so this is definitely Hiram J., son of Wanton) and sold 23 Sept. 1844 they then of Pulaski. Hiram was of Ingham Co. when Wm. Vrendenburgh and wife Betsey of Jackson sold to him, and was in Pulaski with his sister Cordelia and near Fletus. It thus seems likely that Nathaniel R. was second son of Wanton. He may be the unknown Nathaniel in Painted Post, Steuben Co. N.Y. in 1820, or Nathaniel[7] of page 194, or one not yet found.

None of the possibilities outlined seems to shed light on Wanton's identity.

956 Fletus[2] may be same in Van Buren Co., MI 1870 veterinarian; d. Bangor, MI 10 Feb. 1898, b. N.Y. 27 Apr. 1819 and if the Mary b. 1856 is a misreading for Mahlon, then the family records follow:

Use of the name Welcome in this branch of Hathaways as well as they're being the only ones in the Medford, Massachusetts censuses of that period combine to make this a probable identification. Angela b. 1838.

Welcome, as shown on page 1213 sailed in 1849 for California, hence was not shown as youngest of Noah's family in 1850 census. From his son's death record we know his wife was E.Thompson. He has not been found in the 1860 census, but History of the Sacramento Valley, CA by Major J.W.Wooldridge, Chicago, 1931 has a chapter by Benjamin W. Hathaway, Sr. and another by B.W.H., Jr. telling that Welcome desired a general merchandise store, a watch-making and repair shop, and later land for farming and fruit trees; established a store in the foothills of Sacramento. In 1870 he is listed as grocer; in 1880 as jeweler, 52, with wife Ella B., 21 and John F. 7 and with a butler! He married first at age 46.

John F. b. Ophir, Placer Co., CA had his father's inventive mind. In his late teens he worked for the first electric power house in Placer Co., near Newcastle. He hollowed out a flat iron and placed a crude unit in it; it worked, and his sister Henrietta used the first electric iron. Later he patented the first hot water heater, and in early 1900's moved to San Francisco and began the manufacture of heaters. The 1906 earthquake wiped him out, and when the patent ran out, Hot Point took it over, refined it and began production. Eventually he became Superintendent of Operation and Maintenance for A.P.G. and E. in San Francisco. His one child, a boy, died at birth.

Benjamin Welcome, Jr. b. CA 21 May 1881; d. 19 Apr. 1959; res. Sacramento, CA; for 20 years curator of Indian Museum. He was an avid collector of Indian relics since boyhood; appointed curator in 1929; retired June 1951. He began loaning his private collections for exhibitions at State Library and Capitol beginning in 1927. Museum located at Ft. Sutter in 1940. His father came around the Horn in 1848 (sic) and became a founder of Ophir. He learned shipbuilding and millwright trades in Oakland, CA and moved to Sacramento c1904. Dredger, welder, spending Sundays and holidays searching for Indian relics. After retirement he collected and repaired clocks. Hathaway Mine still a landmark in Ophir area.

Daniel[1] of p.1140 is the only Hathaway in the 1820 census of Ontario Co.,NY who seems likely to have migrated from MA to Crawford Co.,PA c1821. he is possibly Daniel[8] of p.324.

The Trepani papers at Crawford County Historical Association give added data. They were sent by Miss Eloise Waid of Meadville, PA in 1975 along with a copy of a letter of 1954 asking for data on Nathan Hathaway who m. # Early North Carolina Hathaways

DAVID[1] Hataway had a roughly triangular piece of land surveyed in County Bufort, province of North Carolina 27 May 1755. It contained 310 acres and lay on the north side of Coneto Creek. One bound was David Hataway, Senior's line implying an earlier survey for an older man of the same name, but no record of the other has yet been found. A copy of the survey was recorded with an indenture made 5 Nov. 1756 between John Earl Granville of Co. Bedford, Great Britain and David Hataway of Beaufort Co., N.C. planter etc. etc. who paid ten shillings sterling . . . all land . . . in the parish of St. Thomas, Co. Beaufort . . . yearly rent of twelve shillings and five pence. David Hataway signed by mark.

26 Dec. 1764 David Hatway bought 100 acres for thirty pounds on Conetoe Creek by deed from attorney of Earl of Granville (rec. Pitt Co., N.C. C/207. This was transferred 10 Feb. 1767 to his son, Edmund, for love, etc. (rec. Pitt Co., N.C. D/11) to include all buildings, cleared ground and woods, 100 acres. Witnesses for his mark were Thomas and Francis, both signed by mark. Edmond moved to Cumberland Co.,N.C.; witnessed Edmond Jr's marr.12 Oct. 1804 to Sally Asbell

On the same day David transferred 100 acres to son Francis (F/158) witnessed by Thomas and Edmund, this land on Sandy Ridge. David signed another 6 Feb. 1765 (C/206) witnessed by David, Jr. Hathway by mark. Thomas bought 100 acres in 1762, land on No. Conetoe Creek, witnessed by Edmond Hataway. He, Thomas, granted to his son, William in 1784 100 acres on S. Grindal Creek, and in 1793 and 1796 sold land on Grindal Pond, east of Conetoe Creek. Also in1783 and 1784 there were grants from North Carolina to Edmund and Thomas totalling 150 and 100 acres and to Francis in 1782 for 60 acres (E/174 and G/163. A 1775 indenture by Thomas Hataway planter, 200 acres for forty pounds, was signed by Thomas, Jr. and Edmond as witnesses.

Consistent with these land records we find the N.C. 1790 census of Newbern District, Pitt Co. David, Edmond and Thomas, Sr. not far from Francis, Jr., James and Nathan. all spelled Hathaway. a little further away are Edmond, Jr., Francis, and John Hatway, David's household including 11 slaves and Thomas, Sr.'s 16 slaves. Of these Edmond and Edmond Jr. had no children, but the other 7 of the same surname had 9 males under 16, and 6 more over 16 in addition to the heads of the household named, and a total of 27 females. By 1800 David, Sr. was survived by widow, Sarah, and living next door to David. Francis, Jr. and Edmond were not listed, and Thomas now had only 2 slaves. Edmond in Duplin Co. 1800 two listings, neither with identification as Sr.! One Edmond over 45 with female 26-45; other with 3 males over 45 and 1 female over 45, one 26-45, 16-26 2 females 10-16, 1 under 10 and 1 male under 10. The marr. bond 12 Oct. 1804 to Sally Asbell was in Cumberland Co. Other records there not researched.

Note that in all the rest of North Carolina in 1790 there are only three other Hathaways; James in Edenton, (see page 765); William of Halifax District, Halifax County, and a John Hattaway in Halifax District of Northampton Co. not yet identified, with one "other".

The Superior Court of Halifax Co.,N.C. probated at the Feb. Session 1795 the will of William[3] Hathaway signed 19 Mar. 1787. Granted to daughters Elizabeth and Sally a feather bed and furniture to sons Thomas, David, and Jesse, equal share of land and plantation; to their mother, Elizabeth, and after her death to six children: Mary Morris, Thomas Hathaway, Elizabeth, David, Jesse and Sally. This land was not recorded in Halifax Co. Only 2 females & 0 males with him in 1790

This David may be the one who drew land in 1827 land lottery in Georgia, and who paid a tax in Georgia in 1818

This appears to be a different family from the Thomas who recorded 100 acres in Pitt Co., N.C. in 1762

Note on page 832 the five Attaway households in Burke Co., GA in 1820: David, Elijah, Harly, Jesse, Jesse, Sr. and Joseph, Jr.

According to the HISTORY OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY by Joseph Kelly Turner and John L. Bridgers, Raleigh, N.C. 1920 a small party of Virginians settled on the Tar River, near presents Tarboro in 1722. By 1723 twenty families were there, but only the freeholders were listed. SKETCHES OF PITTE COUNTY, 1704-1910, pub'd by Henry T. King, 1911 was scanned but no Hathaways found.

A Thomas Hathaway was residing in Accomack Co. VA, then Northampton, in 1638, possibly the first of the name in the South, probably not the same one in Essex in 1716. A Walter Hathwaye, 20 years in 1640, shown in William and Mary Quarterly 1S Vol. 25 p.36, ages of Lower Norfolk County people, abstracted from depositions in Norfolk County Clerk's Office. EARLY VIRGINIA IMMIGRANTS, Greer, 1912 lists William Hathaway, 1650, and FRA, probably Francis, 1652 and possibly the same whose inventory was recorded 8 July, dated 10 June 1719 (Book 10 p.296) Virginia State Library at Richmond. No names are given on the inventory, which totalled 102.9.5. See also Roland Haddawai and William Hathaway on page 910

A file of Land Entries, Warrants, Surveys, Pitt Co., 1761-1884 was searched at N.C. State Library, and Edgecombe Co. 1746-1755-60; 1759-1763; no Hathaways found. A Martha Jane Hardaway, with 480 acres, $1920, 2 lots, 1500, 4 blacks was closest. Abstracts of Court Minutes, 1744-6; 1757-94, Edgecombe Co. similarly. However on 2 Aug. 1785 an 18-year old orphan was bound over to Nathan Hathaway; and on 29 Aug. 1794 Nathan Hathaway was granted administration of estate of Uriah Mills, deceased. On 30 Aug. 1792 the will of Joseph Morgan, deceased was offered for probate by Joseph Morgan, Jr. and contested by David Hathaway and his wife, Mary, executors of the deceased.

Note the William on page 1102 is not the same, and Abel's land is recorded (Pitt Co. V/7) as 50 acres received in the division of William's estate, Nov. term 1813; and 33 1/3 with Elisha 66 2/3. If William were born about 1755, he may have been the William Hathaway in the light dragoons in 1778; Irwin may be the other male, b. 1793-1800. Irwin sold his land in 1818 (AA/255) on S. Grindal Pond, so he probably followed Elisha to GA; Elisha's land north of the Tar River was sold in 1815 (T/188)

David and wife Susannah sold 22 July 1816 (T/189) 22 acres on north side of Tar River. Recorded in R/374 is land bought by David and others, from David and William Hathaway heirs, land of Francis Hathaway, deceased, on south side of Tar and east of Margery's Brook; witness, Shadrach Hathaway R/442, Shadrach sold in 1810 land on W. Tyson's Creek.

Thomas was the Private Hataway in Sharp's Co., 1781, Roster of N.C.Soldiers in the American Revolution, p.133 and appears to be the same Thomas Hatway who was a planter in 1775 with deed recorded in Pitt Co., N.C. witnessed by Thomas, Jr. and Edmund. In 1782 he transferred to Son William (who may be the one on p.1102) and the Thomas, Jr. in 1830 census may be grandson. There are many grantor deeds by Thomas, in 1793 (M/622) and 1796 (N/419) land on Grindal Pond, east of Coneto Creek; to dau. Patsy, 40 acres on west side Conetoe Rd. (N/444); (P/31) in 1801 north of Coneto Creek and P/342) Lot #8 in City, and P/307) to William, 60 acres adjacent to William's corner 28 Sept. 1801 for 90 pounds. Then P/362 to daus. Mary, Lydia and Creecy, divided equally, 1803 and later Creecy to Lydia, and Lydia to Mary.

While it is not possible to assign approximate dates to these early N.C.

Hataways, it is probable that the earlist David mentioned above was born in the early 1700's and in the third or fourth generation there may be several Davids as well as more than one John, Thomas, William, Edmond, Francis, and that a number may have lived in Georgia (see page 1140, both Burke and Jones Counties).

William with Deed of Love to Abel, sold the Pitt Co.,NC land in 1821. James' father was Amos who owned the land in 1790, the date of his indenture being 23 Sept. and recorded in 1796. James sold land in 1801 and 1804, land on East Coneto Creek, and his other heirs were Jennett King and Reuben and Lucy; the second daughter was given furniture. James bought more land in 1819; in 1800 had a family of three sons and two daughters. We have not found proof that James Hataway living in District #16 in Edgecombe Co.NC in 1840 and born 1790-1800 was his son, or James of page 1169 b. N.C. 1804, or neither! Then John who bought some of James' settled in 1839, and his dau. Dinah or Dianah sold half of it that year. John's son David left Pitt Co. about 1816 when he sold with wife Susannah, gone 1820 census.

Another John enlisted 9 Apr. 1777, private in Dawson's Co. and served 3 yrs (N.C. Roster of Soldiers in American Revolution) He is probably not the John Hattiway who was over 45 in Pitt Co. 1820 census who in 1830 lived near David. One son may have been with John then and three grandsons, one b. 1815-20 and two b. 1820-30

Possible children of John who served in the Revolution:

i. John, Jr. b. 1794-1804, possibly father of John who was Confederate Pensioner in 1901. His wife was Penelope, perhaps dau. Henry Harrish, 63 in 1860 census and Molly,50, next door. Penelope was with John b. 1827, living in Falkland, Pitt Co.,NC in 1870 and in 1880 with wife Arnetta, b. 1835 and no ch. John, Jr. may be the John who m. 13 Jan. 1824 Lucy Mayo. He was with his father, John, in Stancils District, Pitt Co.,NC 1830 with a male 10-15, 2 males 5-10 and in 1840 in District #1, Edgecombe Co., NC the household consisting of 9 males, 9 females and 9 slaves.

ii. James b. 1794-1800, prob. c1800, with wife b. 179-, 2 males and 2 females b. 1820-5; 1 female 1815-20, near Sampson, his wife, no ch.

iii. Sampson b. 1804-1810; land on Coneto Creek, 1839 (11/224); sold to Cromwell in 1840; for school district #20 in 1842 and other parcels

iv. Zachariah b. N.C. c1807; d. 1872, probated 1 Oct. 1872; wife Anna sold in 1879; of Halifax Co. 1834; Stancil's District 1850 (207/209). One son:

    Oliver B. b. 1828; sold land 1880-1893; m. Midia Ann Thomas before 1879; she was granted land from Howell Thomas, her father, known as Roberson land He was farmer in 1860, P.O. Sparta, N.C.

v. Cromwell b. 1810-20, not found in later census records, bought land 1840 from Sampson

The Francis who was granted land by his father, David, in 1767 (F/158) was living in 1790 and gone in 1800; apparently the Sarah b. before 1755 was his widow, living next door to David in 1800. Thus a possible lineage is:

David$^{3}$ (Francis$^{2}$ David$^{1}$) b. 1755 to 1774; d. before 1809; with 2 females b. 1774-1784; 2 females b. 1784-1790; 1 female 1790-1800; male b. 1784-90, male b.1790-1800. This younger son may be:

David$^{4}$ who lived in Halifax, District 7 p.41 in the 1840 census with a household of 28, 16 in agriculture, 1 manufacture & trade. The slaves were divided 3 under 10, 5 under 24; 6 under 36 and 2 under 55 and 2 under 100. This is the only family which has persons of the right age to include Gaston Hathaway, and will also have another male and females b. 1810-1820; b. 1820-1825; 1825-1830; 1830-1835; and a final male b. 1835-40.

Edgecombe Co. listed no Hathaways in 1820 census, nor any deeds indexed from 1759 to 1831 when Elizabeth Hunter of Edgecombe County signed an indenture 19 Mar. for 394 acres to John and Sampson Hathaway with interest on a mortgage due in various years from 1831 to 1836. A number of deeds transferred land from John to Sampson etc.(20/148; 20/116; 21/302; 22/62) and later smaller tracts were added. Sampson bought more tracts in 1837 and 1 Jan. 1840 sold (no wife signed deed with him) to Cromwell Hathway. No deed located where Cromwell sold this land.

The History of Edgecombe Co. by Joseph Kelly Turner and John L. Bridgers, Raleigh, 1920, located in N.C. State Archives describes a scouting party which left Virginia in northeastern Albemarle in 1656. That in 1712 a Tuscaroras town was there. By 1720 the shores of the Chowan were occupied by adventurous young men. As the Indians became less friendly, many fled, and a fort was built on Reading's Plantation on the Tar River. In 1722 a small party of Virginians settled near the present Tarboro. By 1723 there were twenty families, but no Hathaways were listed among the freeholders. In 1737 there was an uprising and 500 from Edgecombe protested the quitrents. In 1740 William Kinchen arrived, and in 1744 Lord Granville was placed in charge and collected the rents. In the Bertie district the tax was often paid in tar.

Abstracts of Court Minutes, Edgecombe Co. N.C. 1744-6 showed no Hathaways, but 1757-1794 had three: p.65,Tues.,2 Aug. 1785 Perry Taylor, 18-yr. old orphan son of Thomas Taylor, deceased, bound to Nathan Hathaway. p.96, Will of Joseph Morgan, 30 Aug.1792 deceased offered for probate by Joseph Morgan, Jr.; contested by David Hathaway, and his wife, Mary, executors of the deceased. p.107; Fri. 29 Aug. 1794: Nathan Hathaway granted administration of estate of Uriah Wills, deceased.

Many papers in N.C.Archives, and files were searched with no Hathaways found. There was a Martha Jane Hardaway with 480 acres and 4 blacks in 1815.

In the 1800 census, Vol.2 N.C. film very hard to read, but may be a Joseph Hardeway listed, and Halifax district a number of Hathcock's and one more like Hathwick, could possibly be Hathaway, James. In 1820 census some pages are very clear, and no Hathaways. In 1830 there are two: Thomas Hataway b. 179- with two females one b. 1810-1815 and other 176- and some distance away Caswell Hataway with another male and a female b. 179-; female b. 177-; 2 females b. 1820-25; 2 females and 1 male b. 1825-30. Note that Caswell can be the same in Dale Co., AL (p.1133); a letter in our files states that Caswell's daughter, Elizabeth was born in Dale Co., AL c1825. Neither of these owned land, and both were gone by 1840 when two James Hataway's are listed, with only two families between (surnames are blotted; impossible to read). The older James b. 179- is in District #16, b. 179- with female b.179- and two females b. 1820-25; male 1825-30; male 1830-35. The other James Hataway is in District #8, p.28; b. 180-; with female b. 178-; female b. 181-, female and male b. 1820-5; male 1825-30.

John of District #1 p.4 Edgecombe Co. in 1840 is apparently the son of John b.1770-1775 whose estate was probated (II/162) in 1839 and whose sons Sampson and James had separate households in Stancil's District in 1830. Several attempts to get 1840 census of Pitt Co. have failed; it may answer the question of whether any of that family remained, or if John, Jr.'s household absorbed them all. With one slave, female, over 50, and one 20-30, there were 4 males blacks under 10, and 3 females, and whites 2 males and 3 females b. 1800-1810; 2 females 1810-1820; 3 males and 2 females 10-15; 2 males and 1 female 5-10; and 2 males and 1 female under 5. John was listed as Jack when his marriage bond to Lucy Mayo was filed 13 Jan. 1824, but it was John and Lucy who sold 1/7 part of the Mayo estate to Wm. Mayo (22/322);

Of the 2 David Hattaway's in 1820 census of Pitt Co., the older one, b. 1770-1775 seems to be father to Kinchen, see page 1038, and to Benjamin[2] who was living alone in 1870 in California Twp., Pitt Co. next door to his younger son, and whose older son, Benjamin J[3]. was farmer in Edgecombe Co. Norman Edgar[2] d. Johnson Twp., Washington Co., MO 21 Aug. 1914; b. N.Y. 26 Dec. 1855, son Edwin and Caroline Wheelock, birthplace of both unknown (#1275); m. Elmira, MI 2 Oct. 1881 Nellie M. Jenne, b. Jefferson Co., N.Y., 16, res. Traverse City, MI; he b. Franklin Co. N.Y. Witnesses to marr. J.M.Hathaway, his brother, and Minnie A. Linkletter, her sister.

As family traditions were heavily relied upon, it may even be that the death record was incorrect and father was Edgar A. and the one on page 1143; and even that Aseph Cook was the one who died near Buffalo, and the founder of this family was Edgar Abraham[8] of page 326. The Mrs. Hathaway who taught Sunday School in Traverse City, MI may have been Carrie, or Sarah Caroline Wheelock.

There were family stories of Dr. Frank's horse . . that he walked across the stringers of a bridge in Burlington, Vt. when the planks had washed away. Also of a soft crack in the ice of Lake Champlain and Dr. Frank showed the horse the crack, then went back to let her gain speed, and she took the cutter across safely (This was remembered by Clyde Norman, then 84, and living in Detroit in 1966 telling of his grandfather's brother.) Note that this is more likely for Dr. Frank of Milton, Vt., see page 326, than any ever found in Montpelier!

Sarah Caroline Wheelock b. England 6 Sept. 1821, brought by her parents to Vermont where she met and in about 1848 married Ed. After his death she returned to Traverse City, MI to live with her son Norman Edgar. She d. 9 Aug. 1904 and was buried in 8th St. Cem. Tall, slender, vivacious. She had black hair and snapping black eyes. Buried beside her is Mrs. Alice M. Crater, her second child; Ed Crater had died young, and Alice never remarried, but made a good living for herself and only daughter, Josephine, first with a laundry, later by taking boarders and baking for a hotel.

Norman Edgar[2] also lived in Jackson County, MI, in OH and IA but mostly in Traverse City, MI where he worked with his father as a carpenter. The resort hotel "Neahtahwanta" on Grand Traverse Bay was one of their largest buildings. After marriage he farmed some and as the boys became old enough to help specialized in cheeses, maple syrup and honey; also raised beef, hogs, chickens for eggs, butter, fruits, vegetables, grains and hay. Built a large and interesting house in the form of a cross to give light and air to all rooms. A building across a swift flowing stream on the farm protected foods placed there to cool: milk, butter, watermelons, etc. He spent two years with his brother in Edmonds and Aberdeen, WA and returned to MI and bought a "one-man lumber town" near Empire (Leelanau Co.) There was a pier for loading ships and storing lumber. He bought "The Gull" a small steamship with hold for shingles and staves and horses for hauling lumber to Empire, the nearest railroad. After a few years, with lumber exhausted, sold and moved to Cuba, MO where they bought a general store with apartments over it, and later a few mills, the last in Undine where he died of heart attack. Nellie Mary Jenne, dau. Louette Adelbert and Sarah (Fowler) Jenne, went with her family by boat from Buffalo to Traverse City, MI; she died of a stroke 1 July 1915, bur. Cuba near her husband. She was 5'3", rather plump, curly, almost kinky light brown hair and brown eyes. Good education, sent to Chicago for finishing and then "brought out"

Eleazer b. 178- m. 9 July 1803 Miss Susannah Garrison, both of N.Y.C. (NYGBR 49/350) prob. same in N.Y.C. 1836 Dir., frontier 59 Liberty (Ward 3 of later census records) brother to William Fisher Hathaway d. NYC 24 Oct. 1836 of a liver ailment (NYC Dept. Health, liber #10), b. Philadephia, PA 24 Mar. 1810. As shipmaster was on NYC Directories at least from 1831-1835. In 1830 census NYC Ward 2 Eleazer and Wm. F. and Mary are on page 60, Mary age 30-40 with a male, 10-15. The 1810 census of E. Southwark, Twp., Philadelphia Co. lists William as only head of Hathaway household; Eleazer would be gone, and Benjamin, later physician is probably another son. Note this conclusion fits the facts and certainly not that given on page 77.

William Fisher Hathaway was buried in Middle Dutch Cemetery. His brother, Eleazer, was made guardian to James Madison Hathaway, who was later apprenticed to Seymour G. Steele, engraver, who lived at Fifth, Ave. B 1845-7, same address with Thomas E. Hatheway, teacher. At age 17 James volunteered at Governor's Island,NY 1 Aug. 1846 as a private in Capt. Seymour G. Polk required the volunteers to be men who would be likely to remain, at the end of the War, either in Oregon or any territory in that region of the globe which may be then a part of the U.S. . . . and they may be discharged without a claim for returning home . . ." He mustered out at Monterey, CA 24 Oct. 1848 and is prob. the James, 24, miner, b. N.Y. listed 5 Dec. 1850#454/454, Yuba Co., CA census p.256 He was apprenticed to Capt. At 17 he was 5'8", dark hair, blue eyes, engraver.

Ephraim[1] see question on page 53 under Joshua[4]. His will dated 12 Jan. 1834 was copied by James T. Hathaway and sent for HFA files. He devised to wife Hannah making his oldest son, Richard the executor, and money bequests to children of deceased daughter Sabra Farris, and money to Hiram and George. Apparently no heirs known to him for Ephraim and his second daughter.

987 Richard[2]'s wife, Olive Faunce, was by tradition a French Huguenot lady, who brought a teapot from "La Bon Franz 1652" as engraved on the bottom. A silver chain connects the lid and spout so the lid won't fall off in pouring. It was inherited by Addison, who passed it to Charles F.; he gave it to Alton

George[1] Hathaway by tradition was engaged in whaling when he returned to England with his ships to locate his home port closer to the largest market for his oil. He and older sons commanded ships operating between England and Greenland to the Behring Sea in season. His youngest son:

Joseph Prideaux[2] Hathaway b. New Bedford, MA 1829, d. Sydney, Australia 23 Apr. 1888 ae. 58; m. Scots Church, Sydney 27 Nov. 1856 Barbara Cameron (Dingwall) Pale, widow, ctf. by John Dunmore Lang states Joseph was mariner, son of George, shipsmaster. His mother b. Elizabeth Evans of Freetown, MA. His parents apprenticed him to a carriage painter, but he ran off to sea using an assumed name, and the vessel was wrecked off the coast of West Africa. He stayed some time, fighting in the Zulu wars, then went to Sydney and became a contractor. Later Joseph and Barbara returned to England, contacted his aunt Rhoda, who told him his parents were deceased, and one of his brothers had sailed off with one of their father's whaling vessels and not heard from since. He then told her that a sea captain friend once brought an American captain to see him in Sydney, and the latter said "What are you doing here, Mr. Hathaway?" and it transpired that he had mistaken him for a Henry Hathaway who owned considerable waterfront wharves in San Francisco. After hearing the story, Rhoda wrote him, but he denied he was her brother. Rhoda was the first woman to sit on a public committee, being a member of the Royal Humane Society Committee when Prince Edward, later Edward VII, was chairman. Rhoda also told her nephew that her father had foregone one whaling season to return to London with a party of explorers who had been marooned in Greenland; for this he was awarded the Freedom of London. Joseph and Barbara returned to Woollahra where they lived the rest of their lives. Ch.: Joseph, Alfred, John, William, Rhoda, Ann, Charles and Alexander.

George Z. is now believed to be the male born after 1830 census of Plymouth, MI where David shown on page 379, was only landowner and was in Adrian, MI in 1840 with only the one son. It now seems more probable that he was son of Joseph, who was Joseph Esquire of Plymouth in 1833. Hence delete reference to pages 361 and 362 and insert page 379 for David. Note also that the farm where Joseph went after marriage was about six miles from St. John; had George's parents died soon after 1840 census, his grandfather's farm would have been a logical place for him to stop

999 Alexander A. was laborer, b. MI c1833 with Isaac 82, farmer, b. N.Y. and Mary 86 b. N.Y. (believe handwriting error, b. N.J. See Isaac[6] of pages 220-223) He is 159/63 in 1850 census Buchanon Co., IA and Hester is 156/49 in 1856 b Pa 1799

Alexander A. is son of Isaac (Purcival History of Buchanon Co., IA, 1881) born N.Y. c1801 moved to Turtle Creek Twp., Warren Co., OH in 1820. Here note that the Isaac in Turtle Creek Township, Warren Co. OH 1820 p.228 on Ohio copy and p. 447 on Archives copy is over 45 with male 16 to 25 and male 10-16 and female over 45 and female 16-25, but the Isaac in Allegany Co., N.Y. over 45 had the male over 45 and one 10-16 and females, one over 45, one under 10 and one 10-16. Note also on page 220 that in 1830 this Isaac, Alexander's father appears to be in Allegany Co. again. Is it coincidence that Henry Griffith married in Allegany Co., N.Y.? The narrative also states that in Isaac's first two winters in Iowa he was in Washington Twp. about two miles east of Independence, land entered in Sept. 1846 and the following spring fenced 80 acres with rails split the winter before by a man he brought along for that purpose. (His brother? Or a cousin? That would have been when Henry died!) The narrative said Isaac married in Ohio, went to Michigan where two sons were born; then to Wisconsin where he remained a number of years; then to McHenry Co., IL; and to Buchanon Co., IA in 1845. In 1857 he sold out, returned to OH, back to IA to a farm near Greeley's Grove for five years, then to Cedar Co., IA where he died in 1872. Alexander's children are complete as shown except for George, who seems to be the George W. who was serving his second term in the state legislature in 1939-40, having been city councilman several years . . . that he was born Independence, IA 7 May 1873, and m. 1908 Clara I Ryan.

George[3]'s obit in 17 Sept. Independence Bulletin Journal, p.2, at Historical Library, Des Moines, IA states he was son of Alexander and Mary and b. 7 May 1873, d. 15 Sept. 1954. Note date of birth agrees with 1880 census, and makes Who's Who date incorrect.

1900 census, May 1877:

James b. Feb. 1866 is living at 606 7th Ave., Independence, IA with Jennie S. b. IA July 1872 and two sons: William F. b. Oct. 1895 and Donald Oct. 1899 and Alexander is at 201 7th Ave. b. Another Isaac who has a number of clues to this problem is Isaac H. b. Ohio c1814; West Twp., Marshall Co., IND in 1880 (23-107-20-33) with parents b. OHIO had wife Eliza J. b. PA c1821 and in 1850 census lived in Union Twp., St. Joseph Co., IN very near Henry C. Hathaway, three doors away, both from Warren Co., OHIO, etc. and very possibly the extra male in Henry's household in 1840 (Vol. 10 p.11) This Isaac H. Hathaway may be the one who m. Cass Co., MI 9 Apr. 1835 Eliza Drake and had a son Winfield S. Hathaway b. IN 1848-9; m. St. Joseph Co., IN 7 Sept. 1871 Katie Vinnedge and in 1880 had two daughters Nellie J. b. c1874 and Jennie c1877 and on 11 Mar. 1881 had twins b. Plymouth, IN: Gertie died "years ago" but Benton Burt lived to ae. 90 and d. Rockford, MI 3 Sept. 1971 After Winfield's death, his widow m. Louis Unger.

Eliza may have been a widow as there were two Bashford children in Isaac's home in 1850. John 9 and Mary Ellen 11 and an Ichabod Crane b. N.J. c1794

Alexander's brother, hence Isaac's son, John is the J.G. of page 1166, b. MI c1835, father b. N.Y., mother b. PA; farmer in 1880 in Pleasant Twp., Wright Co., IA (33-250-13-15) with wife Kate b. 1000 The first Hathaway to reside in California was apparently a mere boy who shipwrecked in Monterey Bay, 1837-'39. Humphrey Hathaway, born probably in Fairhaven, Mass. c1821/22; went to sea at age 10 (New Bedford Seaman's Protection Certificate #2476, dated April 14, 1832, lists Humphrey Hathaway as age 10, 4' 4" tall, dark complexion, blue eyes, born Fairhaven). He sailed out of New Bedford 31 May 1836 for the Pacific Ocean on the Commodore Rogers, Capt. Henry S. Howland. The crew list of this sailing, from the Customs records of the District of New Bedford (National Archives photocopy of the original, Records Group 36) lists Humphrey Hathaway as age 14 years, same vital statistics as on the above 1832 certificate (including height!) The crew list is marked "canceled wreck of the Com. Rogers have been found recorded or published in Calif., Mass., and Washington, D.C. I believe the earlier date of 19 Nov. 1837, verified by the "Whaling Librarian" of the New Bedford Free Public Library, is correct. Officers and crew were saved, most of "800 sperm", and the 298-ton vessel and cargo sold for $10,000. (A good source of statistics on the Com. Rogers is "History of the American Whale Fishery", Alex. Starbuck, Argosy-Antiquarian Ltd., N.Y., 1964*) The Ship still lay in the Bay in 1840, ½ mi. from the old Custom house and church, as identified by Thos. Oliver Larkin, U.S. Consul, in an early picture of Monterey Bay ("First and Last Consul", Huntington Library, 1962).

Whatever, Humphrey arrived in Monterey at the time of the wreck and resided there until about age 21. H. H. Bancroft (vol. 4, pg. 119 of "History of Calif.") listed Humphrey Hathaway as one of "but twenty names out of a total of about forty visitors" who were actual residents of Calif., 1838. He was jailed by the Mexicans in April of 1840 (probably a victim of the dissention and political events that preceded the Mexican War) along with various foreigners and U.S. citizens. Irving Stone, in his "Men to Match My Mountains, tells a grim story, pg. 13, of the imprisonment in "The only jail in the Far West", 18 by 30 ft. adobe cell, untenable and "so crowded that only a few men could stretch out for sleep while the rest stood their turn". At one time, Stone tells, food was not brought to the prison for 48 hrs. Monterey "had a population of three hundred, some thirty of them Americans and British".

Humphrey was recorded by Bancroft in his "Works" (vol. 4, p. 17, as having been released and having left the country, this information probably due to the following letter from Consul Larkin, (Vol. IV, pg. 190 & 191 of "Larkin's Papers", ed. by Geo. P. Hammond, Un. of Calif. Press, 1952.)

"Monterey August 10, 1844", to Capt. Thos. A. Norton, in regard to a letter to Humphrey from his sister, found in port, "---and wish you to return to her in or about New Bedford with this letter. Humphy Hatherway (sic) came to Monterey when quite a Boy in the Com. Rogers, Capt. Howland. After being here some time by my advice he began work under a Carpenter. In three years he had leart (sic) much more of the trade, and could earn 3 or 4$ pr day. Altho' he did not drink or gamble, he never was much a head, being more fond of a horse than his work bench ---On the 13 of Sept. 1843 he suddenly left this place much in debt. I suppose he went off in the whale Bark Rajah, Capt. West. ---As Humphy never passed here for one of none or even little principle, I presume he will like to pay these debts when he is able. Should he or his Friends, (I am aware that he has a few hundred Dollas in New Bedford) wish to pay it, ---Should you not find his Sister other ways, perhaps you had better open the letter."

*The above "Whaling Librarian" excused Starbuck as "not always reliable".

Shipping records show that the Whale Bark, "Rajah", also of New Bedford, was near Monterey on Sept. 17, 1843 but no additions or deletions to the crew were recorded, and it returned 7 July 1844 (Old Dartmouth Historical Society & Whaling Museum)

Humphrey seems to have "disappeared" to California, Massachusetts, and shipping history, but the nine years that were recorded regarding his life are quite a true tale for young or old Hathaways of adventurous spirit to remember.

Jehial Beardsley[1] b. N.Y. 22 Jan. 1811; d. Trimbelle, WI 12 July 1894; m. Hulda Baker and in 1860 were in Pierce Co., WI Hulda's brother, John Baker received a pension for his service in the War of 1812; he m. Samantha Hathaway, a sister to Jehiel. These two couples were intensely researched by Carl E. Warn who was a member of HFA until his death 14 Nov. 1974; his wife Lillian had died 8 July 1974. His large collection of research papers has not been located. There would seem to be a possible relationship between Orson of page 1061 and Jehial B. but careful search of records at Plattsburg, Clinton Co. N.Y. did not produce proof. A Jehial Beardsley left a will naming survivors, but no daughter was included who married a Hathaway. The Jehial Hathaway who was head of household in Plattsburg in 1820 was b. 179- and had in his hshld another male born 179-; two males 1800-1805; one 1815-20 and only two females, one b. 179- and other

1815-20. This record should be re-examined as not on the published index to 1820 census, but was read by a careful searcher many years ago! Note that if correct, it can include Jehial's sister Samantha and William of page 1103; ages are not very accurate for Jehial or Orson. On the other side, Samantha named a son, Orson, and the Alexander whom J.B.H. mentioned frequently in his diary is a nephew. Note too that in 1860 Orson's birth was given as N.Y., though CT elsewhere

In any event Jehiel is mentioned in Clinton Co., History, p.370 as resident of Morrisonville 2 Oct. 1835, and p.369 Jehiel and Mrs. Hathaway of Schuyler Falls, 14 July 1846, and as first trustee.

[illegible] RECEPTION ON [illegible] WEDDING DAY

MR. AND MRS. A. C. HATHAWAY OF EAU CLAIRE, WIS.

Special to the Pioneer Press.

Eau Claire, Wis., Dec. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Hathaway celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home here this afternoon and evening by holding a reception for their many friends and acquaintances in this city.

Alexander C. Hathaway and Miss Anna Sherman were wedded on Dec. 14, 1858, at Trimbelle, Pierce county; came to Eau Claire in 1866, and have resided here ever since. In the latter year they joined the Lake Street M. E. church of this city, are still members and bear the distinction of being the oldest members of the congregation. Both are seventy years old but are still hale and hearty, Mr. Hathaway still engaging now and then in his occupation, which is that of carpenter and joiner. During their forty-two years' residence here they have distinguished themselves by their unselfish efforts to promote the welfare of the poor and needy as far as they were able and in looking after the sick.

Mr. Hathaway is a veteran of the Civil war, having served three years with Company F, Thirtieth regiment, from Pierce county, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hathaway was born in Essex county, New York, and Mrs. Hathaway in Grafton county, New Hampshire. Both came to Wisconsin in 1855.

Samantha was 48 in the 1850 census of Black Brook, N.Y.; husband, John Baker, 44, b. N.Y.; ch. Levander 19, Hiram, 17, Clarissa, 15, Orsen 10 and Lodema Carpenter, 67 and Levander Carpenter, 69. Data from Martin who married Clarissa Baker, gr.gr.p. of Mrs. Prittie of Palmyra, N.Y. who states that a Grandy cousin has the Bible in which the oldest record is Lodima Carpenter b. 23 Mar. 1781. Was Lodima mother of Samantha and Levander Carpenter her step-father?

Jehiel Beardsley[1] and Susan of 1207 (who m. Horace Warren) have another link in that Daniel Sumner, uncle to Horace Warren, chose Jehiel Beardsley as guardian. (Wills, Rutland Co. Vt. probate 22 June 1785)

Alexander C. is not son of Jehial Beardsley Hathaway, but a nephew! Data from George H.[4] Beardsley, grandson of Hannah[2] and Corydon Lucius Beardsley, who learned from his mother that Alexander was cousin to both of them. This would mean that Alexander is son of Orson, page 1061, and that Orson is a brother to Jehiel Beardsley

Hannah[2] b. c1839; d. 21 Jan. 1896; m. Corydan L. Beardsley, b. 21 May 1839, m. 2) Jennie Root; he d. 20 June 1916. Data from their grandson, George H. Beardsley of Olympia, WA (1969)

Helen Caroline[2] b. Schuyler Falls, N.Y. 4 July 1842; m. Trimbelle, Wisconsin 2 Nov. 1874 as his second wife Mansir Darius McIntire, son of Mansir and Marilla (Mixter) McIntire, b. Belchertown, MA 27 Feb. 1824; d. Hudson, WI 16 May 1897 (Desc. Philip McIntire p.131, Rutland, 1940)

Corydon Lucius Beardsley, David Hiram Baker and Alexander C. Hathaway all enlisted 12 Aug. 1862 in the 30 Wisc. Corydon's family knew that Alexander was cousin to both the others. Hence Jehiel Beardsley, Orson and Samantha are brothers and sister. Because Orson was born in Woodstock, Vt., and Benjamin of page 56 was the only Hathaway there at that time, and the census records show others in his family not yet found, we now believe they and Susan who married Horace Austin Warren are all ch. of Benjamin.

The following is abstracted from Four Generations of Descendants of Jeremiah Hathaway of Coventry, Rhode Island by Carol Joyce Hathaway, A.B., B.F.A., A.M. and C.G. as well as member of Hathaway Family Association and active searcher of R.I. Hathaways. She also provided much of the data for succeeding generations.

John Austin's Genealogical Dictionary of R.I., N.Y., 1887, p.169 states Jeremiah was son of John, but no proof has yet been found.

1. Jeremiah[1] b. c1700; d. before 24 Dec. 1776; m. Warwick, R.I. 10 Mar. 1725/6 Ruth Rutenburg (Ruttenberge), dau. John, b. c1702; d. after 24 Dec. 1776, the date she released her rights (Coventry, R.I. Deeds 5/358). In Feb. 1748 Jeremiah yeoman, labourer, of Coventry purchased ten acres (2/102). In 1741 Coventry was set off from Warwick, his north boundary was on the division line. Coventry records of Town Council and Probate are now missing, but notes made from Jeremiah's will show he named wife Ruth, sons Caleb, Thomas and William and daughters Elizabeth Kinney, Mary Dailey, Catherine and Lucretia Hathaway. Ch.:

   i. Elizabeth b. Warwick, R.I. 7 May 1727; m. Kinney
   ii. Jeremiah b. Warwick, R.I. 30 May 1730. Served in campaign of 1758 Not in will
2. iii. Caleb b. Warwick, R.I. 20 or 30 May 1732; see below; marched on alarm of 1757
   iv. Thomas b. c1734; m. Warwick, R.I. 28 Sept. 1759 Sarah Graves
   v. William b. c1736
   vi. Mary b. c1738; m. Warwick, R.I. 2 Mar. 1758, Pardon Relph (alias Dailey)
   vii. Catherine b. c1739; m. Warwick, R.I. 5 Feb. 1761 Joseph Mathewson (See p. 1133)
   viii. Lucretia b. c1741

2. Caleb[2] (Jeremiah[1]) b. Warwick, R.I. 20 or 30 May 1732; d. before 22 Apr. 1809 when Thomas Hathaway was appointed administrator of his estate (Warwick Probate 1/157); m. c1756 Sarah, who d. before 11 Jan. 1802 when Caleb sold land without her signature (Warwick Deeds 14/163) Caleb first purchased land in Coventry 18 Apr. 1774; other land transfers to 1778. In R.I. census of 1774 he is listed in Warwick, but did not buy land there until 1784. In 1786 he bought land with his son, Nathan, and in 1791 deeded his share of that to Nathan. In 1800 he sold to Thomas Hathaway "my grandson residing in Coventry, house carpenter" . . . which included the eastern half of Caleb's house. In 1802 he leased land in what is now known as River Point and would become the site of the Greene Mfg. Co., established in 1812. In Aug. 1757 he marched on alarm (R.I. Soldiers and Sailors, p.79) and in 1760 registered the earmarks of his creatures. He died intestate and his grandson, Thomas, was appointed adminstrator. An inventory was made in 1809 and in 1810 Thomas and Jeremiah presented bills to the estate. Two sons recorded in Warwick and a female b. c1760 is possible from 1774 Warwick census.

3.  i. William[3]
4.  ii. Nathan

3. William[3] (Caleb[2] Jeremiah[1]) b. Warwick, R.I. 31 Jan. 1757; m. Warwick, R.I. 4 June 1775 Jane Stafford, dau. John Rippley and Meribah Rippley, b. W. Greenwich, RI 1 May 1749 William either lived a very short time after his marriage, or left R.I. The increase in Caleb's household in the 1782 Warwick census may include his family. He may have had two sons, Thomas and Jeremiah. Neither can be Nathan's sons, as both were alive when he dated his will and neither is mentioned. We know that Thomas was grandson of Caleb, as he was named in deed above. It seems that Jeremiah was a grandson rather than son from his probable date of birth.

5.  i. Thomas[4]
6.  ii. Jeremiah

4. Nathan[3] (Caleb[2] Jeremiah[1]) b. Warwick, R.I. 14 Sept. 1758; d. testate in Exeter, R.I. in 1815, bur. Hathaway Family Cemetery, Hallville Rd., Exeter, R.I.; m. Warwick, R.I. 27 Feb. 1783 Mercy LeValley, b. c1760; d. before 1799 when Elizabeth was born, a dau. by Nathan's second wife. Mercy was dau. Michael LeValley. Nathan's second wife, Sarah King, was dau. Samuel and Deborah (Greene) King, and first cousin to his first wife, Mercy LeValley. (Notes of Violet

E. Kettelle of E. Greenwich, R.I.) Sarah is named in her father's will dated 16 Feb. 1812, rec. W.Greenwich 24 June 1822 (5:152,3) Sarah died after 1824, the year she finished administration of Nathan's estate, and prob. in 1832 (date on rough gravestone in Hallville Road Cemetery with initials "S.H."

In 1790 Nathan listed in Warwick, 26 Jan. 1801 he bought 90 acres in Exeter, R.I. (5/433) in the vicinity of Hallville Road. In his will dated 21 Feb. 1815 and proved 28 Feb. 1815 he named wife Sarah as executrix, left personal estate to her, and real estate to her for her natural life, then to be divided equally among his sons William, Jeremiah, Nathan, Christopher, and George. A cow to each daughter was to be provided within seven years of his death: Roby Hopkins, Susannah Hathaway, Polly Whitford, Nancy Sunderland, Betsey Hathaway and Mercy Hathaway (Exeter Probate 8/224,225) The cows were received by John and Polly Whitford 1 Sept. 1815; Oliver Hopkins, 12 Oct. 1818; John Sunderland 5 Apr. 1820, Susannah Hathaway 2 Aug. 1823 and Mercy and Betsey Hathaway 13 Aug. 1824 (ibid 10/309) Ch.:

5. Thomas[4] (William[3]? Caleb[2] Jeremiah[1]) b. 13 July 1777; d. 14 Mar. 1816 (g.s. in Arnold Cemetery Collection, Knight Memorial Library, p.21); m. 1) Huldah b. c1778; d. after 11 Jan. 1802 when she signed land transaction (Warwick 14/164). She was dau. Mary Colvin, as Mary was mother of either Thomas, Huldah, or Thomas's second wife, Nancy and both Thomas and Nancy may be ruled out as her children. Mary named her grandchildren and stated they were the children of Thomas Hathaway, late of Warwick, deceased. Thomas Hathaway, Huldy his wife and Mary Colvin sold property in 1800 (Coventry 9/319). Nancy was living when Mary dated her will, and not mentioned, 26 Aug. 1817; proved 12 June 1820; giving six acres of land to grandson George Brayton Hathaway and the rest and residue to grandson William Hathaway. To granddaughters, Mary, Issobelle and Rockeila Hathaway she left personal property (Warwick Wills 7/306,307) and Warwick Probate (1/5)

Thomas m. 2) Nancy, b. 1779; d. 27 Aug. 1837; g.s. Colvin Family Cemetery, Colvintown Rd., Coventry, R.I., widow of Thomas Hathaway. She was prob. dau. Captain Benedict and Hannah Colvin as Benedict b. 1746 d. intestate 4 Oct. 1835 and on 14 Mar. 1836 his estate was divided equally among six women, one of whom was Nancy Hathaway (Coventry 5/226).

Thomas[4] d. intestate and 30 Mar. 1816 Joseph Manchester was appointed adminstrator. An inventory presented 4 Apr. 1816 and on 15 Feb. 1817 certain articles were set off for the use of the widow, Nancy Hathaway. The Hathaway house divided between Caleb and Thomas in the 1800 transaction was referred to as the "mansion house" in the settlement of Thomas' estate. In the History of Warwick, R.I. Oliver Payson Fuller, Providence, R.I. 1875 p. 238 states "the old Hathaway house is still standing, and is the fourth from the railroad bridge on the northwest side of the street that runs along the railroad." It is the most ancient house in that vicinity" By 1875 it was in a manufacturing district; the railroad appeared in 1853. On 6 Sept. 1817 Mary Colvin was appointed guardian for minor children of the late Thomas Hathaway: William, Roxilla, George B., Mary, and Issobelle. The same day Nancy was appointed guardian of minor children of her late husband, Thomas Hathaway: Huldah, Thomas Colvin and Hannah. Later, 23 Mar. 1822 John Allen was made guardian of Mary and Issobelle Hathaway. His widow, Nancy, received one-third of the land and much of the "mansion house" including all the lower story except for two rooms. The other two thirds of the land was divided equally, each receiving a strip bordering on the Pawtuxet River. Their respective guardians drew lots for the children. 7. William[4] (Nathan[3] Caleb[2] Jeremiah[1]) b. c1783 possibly died 1836 because of the location and size of a rough gravestone in the Hallville Rd. Cemetery with the initials and data "W.H.1836". Carol Joyce Hathaway who visited the cemetery in 1975 found the stone hardly readable, so took the date from Arnold Cemetery Collection, Knight Library, p.39. The only mention of him in R.I. appears in Exeter, 6 Feb. 1818. In this transaction, Sarah Hathaway purchased property belonging to William Hathaway, "yeoman of Exeter," this property having been offered at public auction for the satifaction of a debt William owed Thomas Phillips (Exeter Land Evidence, 8/194)

   However, he may well be the William of R.I. whose identity is quite clearly traced in census records, see page 1215 for Preston, CT in 1810, he under 26 and probably the one in Grisold Church Records, CT. 1809 m. Lucy (?Olin) and in the 1810 census of Preston, Ct. William Hathaway lived adjacent to Philip Olin. In Preston Ct. Church records the marriage of Lucy Olin to William Hathaway was entered and then crossed off. A daughter b. N.Y. Lucy, b. CT is shown as 72. William of R.I. came to Lincklaen, Chenango Co., N.Y. before the 1820 census; died in his 80th year, buried at Cowles Settlement, Town of Cuyler, Cortland Co., N.Y., listed in Truxton, Cortland Co. 1850,1855. His first recorded NY land purchase was in 1825 in Madison Co. called Fenner Twp. which is now slightly north and east of DeRuyter. Ch.:

See p.1206 and note that more research is needed; probably not same as William's youngest child said to be member of N.Y.'s 40th Engineers. He is remembered by Clarence Hathaway of Fabius who sent this data. He is also listed in 1860,70,80 at Cuyler and wife Mary b. N.Y. c1828 living in 1870

Note: Before accepting this hypothesis, it will be necessary to do more research on William of page 140, oldest son of Sgt. William of Dighton who also disappeared between 1800 and 1810. Reference used there applies only to his sister, Patience in a manifold copy compiled by Mary A. Moulthrop in 1947. It frequently happened that Hathaways in Dighton and Berkley were said to be born in R.I. — probably to distinguish them from the Boston area of Massachusetts. The one added clue for placing him with Nathan is that Sarah held the auction to clear her husband's estate; had her stepson William died, it would have been his estate involved. Nathan's William would be more likely to go to Preston Ct. than Sgt. Wm's son Wm. All records of children of William of N.Y. state their parents b. R.I.

As to Lucy's surname, in 1790 a Philip Olin was in New London Co., CT with 3 males over 16, 5 males under 16 and 5 females. In 1810 census of Preston, New London Co., CT the first family listed is William Hathaway, next Phillip Olin (over 45); next is William Olin (26-45) and next Squire Olin (26-46) Probable that Lucy Olin is William Hathaway's wife

Capt. Leonard F. Hathaway died in Soldiers and Sailors Home, Bath, N.Y. Aug. 1908 and Devillo B. was given his effects being the closest relative. This appears to be the Leonard b. N.Y. c1839 who was with Lucy in 1860 and probably Roby though it reads as "Rubin Hathaway, male, 49, b. CT." They were with John Barber 61, b. R.I. and Clamma Barber, 55, b. N.Y. and an Elizabeth Hathaway, 8 b. N.Y. (Susan Dick sent no family numbers or house numbers; might be same house, or just same village, Cuyler, Cortland Co., N.Y.) Clarence wrote in 1972 or 71 that he was Roby's son, He was prob. called Leonard Stilwell in 1850, and Leonard Hathaway in 1855. Was Betsey Babcock of 1850, Betsey Hathaway in 1855, another granddaughter?

John[1] of New Bedford is apparently an example of the different copies of the 1800 census having different data. N.Y.B.G.R. 49/333 shows James Hathhaway 62/4 Montegomery and John 16-26 in Johnstown, Mohawk Valley, N.Y. with female 16-26 and 3 slaves. A copy read at Archives in Washington D.C. has James in Vol. 7 p.63 m and f under 26 and male under 45 and in Charlestown John (7/96) male under 26 with males and female under 45 and Henry in Charlestown (7/103) whereas Gendex shows 4/101. The work at Archives was done 15 Feb. 1954 when large books were used; later work from microfilm. A similar situation is found with Israel of Oneida Co., N.Y. where the Archives copy has one on page 8 and another on page 13, the only difference being the age of the female, but in Ralph Wood, Jr.'s published index both male and female are under 26 and an additional male is under 10. (See page 127, H of A) With such differences until more data is found it is impossible to prove the line.

1014 John[1] Capt. in War of Revolution, is a possible son of Zephaniah[5] of page 768. The birth of Charles is not recorded in Providence. An old record without citation states that William and Elizabeth Hix had Sarah b. 5 Mar. 1739; Hannah, b. 14 Feb. 1741; Priscilla b. 22 July 1743; John b. 1 Dec. 1745. In the 1800 census of R.I. Capt. John was closer to Desire, widow of Zephaniah[5] than to Zephaniah[6], see page 903, or Abner, see pages 802-3. Thus William and Zephaniah may be the two males over 16 with Desire. Solution suggested by Carol J. Hathaway in letter written Labor Day, 1976.

John and Martha (Ryder) Hathaway had a daughter Amy R. Hathaway b. Newport, R.I. 4 Mar. 1798; d. Extension St. Newport, widow, 10 July 1878. Her husband was a John Hathaway and their son, John Hathaway, listed as a shoemaker in 1850 census, was the attorney for his mother and lived at 174 Bellevue Ave.,Newport at the time of his death, 14 May 1894 ae. 67-6-11 or b. c. 3 Nov. 1826. His wife, Almira, b. R.I. c1832 and an infant son d. 12 June 1856. See p.1176 for John, shoemaker. For William b. 1793 see page 1214 and insert late: son late Capt. John . . . On 27 May 1825 the widow Martha adm. estate of Jonathan and Sarah Walker and sold their land and dwelling on Pope St. to Isaiah Barker; grantee, same day. She died and was buried in common burial place 5 Jan. 1852 ae. 88-7-25. On 22 Mar. 1852 Amy R. Hathaway applied to adm. estate and was appointed 26 Apr. 1852. On 13 Nov. 1856 John Hathaway of Newport was her attorney. Martha's inventory listed one bed, one stand, one rocking chair, one feather bed and 12 quilts. Amy R. Hathaway sold the house on Pope St. to pay her bills.

Susan[2] (The Nevadan—Sunday 4 June 1972) "Black Pioneers of Las Vegas" by Georgia Lewis, pictures Susannah and her daughter Lucretia "the most famed of black pioneers in Las Vegas". That her day book tells of her mother's contract to marry an older man who already had several other wives, and her breaking it to marry Tom Tanner, a popular young black, fine musician, but a mixed marriage shocked Salt Lake City and they left to take a ranch in Chester, Idaho, where Lucretia was born. When 15 she married a rancher from Denmark. After his death she married Ernest Stevens, half Indian and half negro, so her half-Danish sons did not appear black, but other progeny were of all shades. She came to Las Vegas with four small children and recorded in her day book all comings and goings of the black community.

1056 Leonard[1] listed as a settler in the area of Little River, Beaverdam Creek, grant to James Richardson in 1783, formerly Upper District of Botetourt, in 1789 annexed to Montgomery, VA with Cole, Iddings, Light, Likins, Penelton and Sellers. Much data from Erma Sowers who is a double descendant of Leonard and Susannah and has completed ten generations of this family. She found no land in Leonard's name, but lives in Check, VA within sight of Elijah Light's old home place on the South Fork of the Roanoke. She believes Leonard died before his daughters' marriages but it is possible he went into Tennessee with sons. Three daughters of Leonard and Susannah:

Hannah m. Franklin Co., VA 3 Oct. 1791 James Light b. Morris Co. (N.J.?) 1770; will dated 19 Apr. 1853
Lydia m. Montogomery Co.,VA Nov. 1792 Henry Light
Rhoda m. Montgomery Co., VA 2 Dec. 1795 Peter Willson; they were in Montgomery Co. VA in 1810; he and wife 26-45 with 5 daus. 1 son; in 1840 Floyd Co. in 1850 he was 78 living with son James & his wife Emily. He bought 35 acres 23 Sept. 1806 on Beaver Dam waters of Little River, Christianburg, Montgomery Co.; and 3 July 1847 deeded to sons Elijah and James; so probably widower then.

1102 William[1] Hataway did not appear on Halifax County in early deed indices (or as Hallaway, or Hathaway), letter 17 May 1976 signed "T.S.Uzzell, Reg. Deeds" The only William in 1790 census of N.C. appears to be the same one who was in 1800 census of Pitt County, and not yet found in any 1810 census. Pitt County Deeds (V/7) show this William deceased by Nov. term 1813, and his estate divided so Abel received 50 acres, Irwin 50, and Abel 33 and one third and Elisha 66⅔. Abel was still in Pitt County in 1821 when he was given power of attorney for Nehemiah Downs (DD/162). Elisha sold land north of the Tar River in 1815 (T/188) Irwin sold in 1818 land on South Grindal Pond (AA/255)

Black Hathaways in America

Perhaps the most famous black Hathaway during the 1970's was Donny Hathaway whose picture may be seen in NY Times, 5 Mar. 1972, Section 2 page 28 who was to sing to Philharmonic Hall the following Sunday. He is referred to as a gifted young black singer who would do eight songs in live audience settings, the finest a 12 minute version "The Ghetto" and a briefer "Little Ghetto Boy".

Donny was born in Chicago about 1945, an apparent suicide 13 Jan. 1979. Grandson of gospel singer Martha Crumwell, he grew up in black ghetto of St. Louis, began performing at age three, billed as "The Nation's Youngest Gospel Singer". In 1964 he took an arts scholarship at Howard University in Washington, D.C. studying to be either a preacher or a teacher. After leaving college he returned to music as an arranger, songwriter, producer, and keyboardist and percussionist for Curtis Mayfield and the Impressions. His first album was "Everything is Everything". By time his third L.P. was released he was established as funky rhythm and blues artist. His first major success was "The Ghetto" from 1972 album "Donny Hathaway Live" recorded at Bitter End in NY.
